Honorable Sir:

Yesterday I was in the Office of [REDACTED] b6
[REDACTED] of the Gurdon Times, Gurdon, Clark County, b7C
Arkansas, and he had on exhibition a circular prepared in identical manner as those that are usually on display in post office bulletin cases wherein our honorable Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of the United States was "Dealt With" in the most derogatory manner possible. Practically every disparaging word, phrase and sentence that could be assimilated in or with the English language was composed and printed.
This along with a front and side view picture. At the end of all the libel and slander that the authors' imaginative minds could think of and or assimilate there was solicitation for orders of such pamphlets to be sold by the hundred or thousands. And those interested were urged to write to:

American Nationalist,
Box # 301,
Inglewood, California.

It is my sincere belief that the bureau you head should make a thorough investigation of the sponsors of such literature. And perhaps I should add that [REDACTED] stated that he had received the circular through the United States Mail. I should further add that I did not ascertain [REDACTED] b6
[REDACTED] attitude toward Justice Warren but he had it exhibited b7C where the public may see and read therefore his esteem for our chief justice is far below mine or he would not have such exhibited to the public.

Respectfully,

[REDACTED]

NOTE: Material forwarded by correspondent has been brought to the Bureau's attention in the past.

Correspondent is referring to the article entitled "How To Fight Hate Merchants" by William Peters which is devoted to combating racial bigotry. In this article, one of the suggestions Peters offers to his reader is to "Save all of the evidence, including the envelope, if any, and make it available to the FBI, local police, postal authorities, and your community relations groups." The author indicates that the Justice Department is receiving numerous complaints from distribution of hate literature.

SUBJECT: AMERICAN NATIONALIST
RACIAL MATTERS
OO: LOS ANGELES

Enclosed for the Bureau are two photographic copies of a flyer entitled "WANTED FOR IMPEACHMENT" which resembles wanted flyers of the FBI. This flyer demands the impeachment of Chief Justice EARL WARREN, U. S. Supreme Court.

The flyer, original of which is retained by WFO, was received from C. C. GARNER, Postal Inspector in Charge, Post Office Department, Washington, D. C. It was submitted by [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] The envelope in which the material was received was postmarked Troy, New York, and according to GARNER, was possibly mailed by [REDACTED] who currently resides at [REDACTED] and formerly resided at the [REDACTED] address. b6

One copy of the flyer is being sent to Richmond, Albany and Los Angeles for information.

The Bureau may desire to refer this flyer to the Department to ascertain if there is any possible violation with regard to the make-up of the flyer.

WFO is taking no further action.

Dear [Redacted]

Your letter postmarked June 14, 1959, with enclosure, has been received.

In response to your inquiry, I wish to advise that the FBI has not compiled a list such as you described since the function of this Bureau as strictly a fact-gathering agency does not extend to furnishing evaluations or clearances of any organization, publication or individual.

To secure lists of cited groups and periodicals, it is suggested that you contact the Subversive Organizations Section, Internal Security Division, United States Department of Justice, Washington 25, D. C., and the Superintendent of Documents, United States Government Printing Office, Corner of North Capitol and H Streets, Northwest, Washington, D. C. From the latter, you can purchase, for thirty-five cents, a copy of the "Guide to Subversive Organizations and Publications," prepared and released by the Un-American Activities Committee of the United States House of Representatives.

Enclosed is material of possible interest to you.

Dear Sirs:

Enclosed you will find what I feel is worse than any of the pornographic literature which has been screened by the Post Office Department. It seems to me that good American citizens should not be harassed with material such as this.

I feel that this is worse than un-American; it is treason to the nature of being a human animal.

Is there some way that we can keep this type of information out of the hands of our fellow citizens? In the first place it is un-true and slanderous.

I do hope that something can be done about this matter.

This material was mailed out in Denver, Colorado, and was hand addressed.

educated, converted to Christianity and ultimately given citizenship. Unquestionably the Negro of today is much better off than he would ever have been in Africa, where his blood cousins still live in squalor and superstition --still only a step removed from cannibalism. It should be remembered that in Europe the White race was held in slavery under feudalism for centuries, and by an ironic coincidence Russia freed millions of her slaves (serfs) in 1864 --about the same time the Negro was emancipated in this country. Slavery is never good or desirable, but the Negro race is certainly not the only one ever to be held in bondage. The Negroes of today are fortunate to live in America and it is high time they stopped feeling sorry for themselves. It is also time they stopped hating their white benefactors, too.

TRUE OR FALSE: THE U.S. CONSTITUTION PROHIBITS SEGREGATED SCHOOLS.

False! The Constitution does not mention schools at all, nor does it give the Federal courts control of education. In handing down its school integration decision of 1954, the Supreme Court quoted the writings of a number of modern sociologists and psychologists to justify its ruling --not the Constitution. No law, and no part of the Constitution, has been changed or amended to give the Supreme Court authority to compel race mixing in the schools or anywhere else. If you doubt this, read the Constitution yourself. You will find that those sections pertaining to civil rights read the same today as 50 years ago; not a word, not a sentence, not a comma has been changed...

TRUE OR FALSE: TO SEGREGATE NEGROES IS TO DENY THEM THEIR RIGHTS.

False! Whites have rights as well as Negroes. Compulsory integration is an infringement upon the White person's right to associate with people of his own kind and choosing.

TRUE OR FALSE: SENDING WHITE CHILDREN TO SCHOOL AND CHURCH WITH NEGROES WILL NOT NECESSARILY LEAD TO INTER-MARRIAGE IF "CHILDREN ARE BROUGHT UP RIGHT".

False! If you teach your children that segregation and racial pride are wrong, immoral and un-Christian, how can you expect them to believe that inter-marriage is wrong?

TRUE OR FALSE: YOUNG CHILDREN SHOW NO PREJUDICE OR AWARENESS OF SKIN COLOR UNTIL SO TAUGHT BY THEIR ELDERS.

True! Very young children are not prejudiced against anything. And because they cannot discriminate between what is good and what is harmful, they must be carefully trained for their own protection. The point is that racial self-respect, like table manners and hygiene must be instilled in the youngster by his elders.

REPRINTS AVAILABLE: 20 for $1.00; 100 for $3.00, American Nationalist, Box 301, Inglewood, Calif.

Four of the interracial couples shown above are married. The pair on the extreme left is not -- yet. These photographs dispose for all time of the argument that integration in the schools, the churches, the playground and elsewhere does not lead to mixed marriages. History, both modern and ancient, has shown that wherever Negroes and Whites have been thrown together intimately for any length of time, miscegenation has resulted on a mass scale. And wherever race-mixing has occurred, the White race has been polluted, swallowed up, destroyed... Some sociologists are already gleefully predicting that America will be entirely "coffee-colored" within a few generations.

TRUTH AND FALLACY ABOUT THE INTEGRATION PROBLEM

NOTE: The following "true and false" questions should provoke every thinking patriot to a better understanding of the integration question.

TRUE OR FALSE: IT IS "UN-CHRISTIAN" AND "UN-AMERICAN" TO PRACTICE RACIAL SEGREGATION.

False! If segregation is "un-American", our forefathers (including the Pilgrim Fathers) were un-Christian and un-American, because at no time did they practice or advocate integration or equality of the races.

TRUE OR FALSE: ALL THE RACES OF MANKIND ARE EQUAL AND SCIENTISTS HAVE NEVER FOUND ONE RACE TO BE SUPERIOR OR INFERIOR TO ANOTHER.

False! The various racial groups are amazingly diverse in size, structure, physical appearance and mental ability. They range all the way from the highly civilized northern European to the almost sub-human South African Bushman (see cut). The African Bushman, in common with several other racial types, is incapable of abstract reasoning at all, its brain being only about half the size of the average European. The mental capacity of Negroes is conspicuously below that of whites, too.

The woman on the right is a fairly typical inhabitant of Africa. The girl on the left is an American. Their racial characteristics are so utterly different that no intelligent person could fail to note the distinction. And yet in our colleges and universities students are daily brainwashed into believing that there are no essential differences between the races; that no one race is superior to any other race.

TRUE OR FALSE: RACIAL DIFFERENCES ARE ONLY SKIN DEEP. PROOF OF THIS IS THE FACT THAT NEGRO AND WHITE BLOOD ARE IDENTICAL.

False! Negro and White blood are not identical. The United States Air Force will not permit Negro passengers to fly at high altitudes until blood tests are taken to determine if they have the "sickle cell trait" -- an inherited characteristic of Negro blood. About 1,500,000 U.S. Negroes have the "sickle cell" trait, and it is dangerous for them to fly at high altitudes. It is also dangerous for a white person to receive "sickle cell" blood in a transfusion, which is why some states require blood banks to label Negro and White blood according to race.

TRUE OR FALSE: WHEN THE FOUNDING FATHERS WROTE THE U.S. CONSTITUTION, THEY SPECIFIED THAT "ALL MEN ARE CREATED EQUAL", REGARDLESS OF RACE OR COLOR.

False! In the first place the statement that "all men are created equal" appears nowhere in the Constitution or the Bill of Rights. It is found in the Declaration of Independence and was penned by Thomas Jefferson, a slave owner. Neither he nor the authors of the Constitution believed in racial equality, much less integration. In fact most of them, including George Washington, were slave owners, too. Article I of the U.S. Constitution recognized (and legalized) the Negro's status as a chattel, not as a citizen or equal. It is not true that the founding fathers believed in Negro equality, or that the Constitution provided for it. The exact opposite is true.

TRUE OR FALSE: THE WHITE RACE OWES A SPECIAL OBLIGATION TO THE NEGRO RACE BECAUSE THEY WERE BROUGHT TO THIS COUNTRY AS SLAVES.

False! On the contrary the Negro owes the White man a special debt of gratitude for the opportunity he has found here. In America he was civilized,

"In Brazil, you will find blue eyes and black skin, flat skulls with triangular faces, hair plaited in pigtails, white babies at the breasts of colored mothers, colored babies at the breasts of white mothers and colors running from ebony to eggshell via copper, olive, caramel, and banana.

A mixture of this sort has made any attempt at racial segregation out of the question in Brazil—because no one could possibly tell where white begins and black ends."

"Brazil has long since passed the rest of the world in its race relations. The so-called race problem simply does not exist in Brazil."

Gentlemen:

The National Defense Magazine is published at Arcadia, Cal. and is represented by one Mr. J. H. Hoennel, presumably a retired service man. My husband [redacted] is a retired Naval officer and subscribes to the "Defense" magazine. For quite sometime I have been - perhaps unduly - concerned. However, in the first place J. H. Hoennel addressed letters to my husband as "Comrade" [redacted] That "Comrade" smacks of communism to me. Mr. Hoennel lives in a small, extremely modest cottage in Arcadia, and is obviously a man of very modest means. Nevertheless, he is travelling much of the time, makes numerous trips to Washington, D. C. and seems to travel all over the United States - frequently taking extended "business" trips. Twice he has mailed us receipts for subscriptions enclosing the type of propaganda literature that, to me, smacks of communism or plain old Hitlerism. I enclose the last one we received. You will note it is addressed to [redacted] because I addressed the envelope. I wrote asking if our subscription was not past due, and enclosed a self-addressed envelope simply because I wanted no more of his letters addressed to "Comrade" [redacted] (The Navy had my husband's name spelled [redacted] and, after thirty years, he has finally succeeded in getting the name changed to [redacted] (The proper spelling) on the records. In this self-addressed envelope Mr. Hoennel wrote a note to "Dear Comrade" giving us the desired information about the subscription but, for the second time he enclosed propaganda. This time against Jews. I enclose same herewith. I feel that any person who mails out such propaganda rates investigating. Especially in view of the fact that, although obviously of modest means, he can travel all over the country - and often - addressing retired Navy men as "comrade." There's something fishy about this man. And what right has any person to send such propaganda through the mail?

Bufiles reveal that John H. Hoeppel is actually the owner and publisher of "National Defense" although he has used the name [redacted] which is believed to be that of his wife, [redacted] in distributing the magazine. Hoeppel, subject of Los Angeles file 100-3964, is a former Congressman from California who, with his son, was indicted in 1935 while a member of Congress and found guilty of conspiracy to accept a bribe in the sale of an appointment to the United States Military Academy at West Point. He was the subject of a sedition investigation by the Bureau during World War II on the basis of material contained in "National Defense" which was critical of the War Department and was the subject of an Illegal Wearing of Uniform investigation in 1941 and 1945 on the basis that the stationery used by Hoeppel contained the United States Marine Corps insignia; however, prosecution was declined in both instances. (100-25217)

b6

The "American Nationalist" is a monthly publication published in Inglewood, California, Los Angeles file 100-7945. Its editor, Frank L. Britton, a veteran of World War II and former student at the University of Southern California, reportedly opposes communism, racial integration and related movements which he ascribes to Jewish initiative and, consequently, has been labeled as anti-Semitic and a hatermonger. (105-22921)

NOTE ON YELLOW:

Correspondent says her husband, a retired Navy officer, subscribes to "National Defense" and she is concerned because letters to her from J. H. Hoeppel in answer to inquiries concerning the subscription to the publication are addressed "Dear Comrade." She thinks "Comrade" smacks of communism and she is, therefore, suspicious of Hoeppel. She states that the last letter she received from him (postmarked 9-20-53) enclosed the pamphlet by the "American Nationalist" which is against Jews and inquires what right has any person to send such propaganda through the mail. The Bureau has previously (as late as 4-3-58) brought to the attention of the Post Office Department the receipt of complaints that the "American Nationalist" publications should be barred from the mail. Since correspondent admittedly received the pamphlet she enclosed on 9-20-53, it is not believed desirable to send it to Post Office Department or to comment in our reply to her concerning her question.

RACIAL MATTERS

On October 2, 1959, Confidential Informant Knoxville T-1, made available a circular bearing the caption, "Wanted For Impeachment Earl Warren". At the bottom of this printed circular was the name, "American Nationalist, Box 301, Inglewood, Cal.". The circular contains reproductions of two photographs of Chief Justice Earl Warren, United States Supreme Court. The circular has three sub-captions as follows: "Description", "Criminal Record", and "Caution".

The circular contains allegations regarding Chief Justice Warren, such as, "Warren is considered to be a dangerous and subversive character"; "Warren has been accused of giving aid and comfort to the Communist Party on frequent occasions"; "Warren is a rabid agitator for compulsory racial mongrelization".

An autostat copy of this circular is attached to this memorandum.

Confidential Informant Knoxville T-1 advised that he received a copy of this circular while attending a meeting of the Harriman, Tennessee, Klavern of the U. S. Klans, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, Inc. (Tennessee), on the night of September 9, 1959. Informant stated that on this occasion he was told that members of this organization had distributed these circulars among the membership and had also posted copies of the circular in conspicuous places in the city of Harriman, Tennessee. Informant advised that he did not know the original source of these circulars other than he had noticed that the name and address of the American Nationalist appeared at the bottom of the circular.

(U) On 10/28/59, [redacted] furnished SA HOWARD FLETCHER, JR., with a printed circular, and the October, 1959, issue of "The American Nationalist", and a self-addressed envelope from American Nationalist, P. O. Box 301, Inglewood, California, which required no postage. This material had recently been received at the Legation of Yemen, Washington, D. C., from the above captioned organization.

This material consisted of:

1. A one page circular which was critical of President EISENHOWER inviting Premier KHRUSHCHEV, USSR, to visit the U.S. pointing out that this was the best propaganda made available to the Communist Party in the U.S.
2. The October, 1959, issue of the "American Nationalist".
3. A business reply mail envelope addressed to the American Nationalist, P.O. Box 301, Inglewood, California.

The Los Angeles Office is being furnished a copy of this letter for their information, inasmuch as there was only one copy of this material and the Los Angeles Office most likely has a copy of this material in their files, this material is being sent to the Bureau.

THE MOST SUCCESSFUL BRAINWASHING OPERATION IN ALL HISTORY...

Dear Friend & Patriot:-

This morning, from a source I cannot divulge, I obtained a notice from the "Southern California District of the Communist Party, U.S.A." It is an announcement of a special "40th Anniversary Celebration" of the Communist Party, to be held at the Embassy Auditorium in Los Angeles within a few days.

The Commies are in a jubilant mood over the results of the Khrushchev visit. They are fairly bursting with renewed confidence and arrogance. They are getting set for big things. They have been given a new lease on life, and the Party, which has had rough going in recent years, anticipates a big come-back. Treason is back in style again...

Behind all this optimism is the knowledge that millions upon millions of Americans have been treated to an intensive propaganda course via TV, during which time the bloody "butcher of Budapest" was allowed to spew his slime into virtually every home in America.

Understandably the Communists are happy about this, because they know they reached more Americans during that two week period than they have heretofore reached in the previous 40 years combined! At least 100 million Americans of all ages (including millions of impressionable school age children) have been exposed to what is undoubtedly the most successful and convincing propaganda show of all time. They were exposed not just once, but day after day for two solid weeks --making it unquestionably the most successful brainwashing operation in all history! And the U.S. government arranged for, and paid for, the whole thing....

Mr. Eisenhower has sought to excuse the Khrushchev visit on the grounds that the American people have a right to hear all sides of any question. But you will notice that this principle does not apply to Nationalists and right wing patriots who wish to be heard. In fact, we are not allowed to express our viewpoint on TV or radio, and the press observes a rigid code of silence concerning our every activity. It is obvious, therefore, that Mr. Khrushchev and the Communists enjoy certain important rights and privileges of public expression in this country which we patriots do not enjoy.

That, in fact, is the precise reason I am forced to write you this letter, because the truth is that we Nationalists must for all practical purposes operate from underground. Television, radio, the press --all the media of public expression are closed to us, except the U.S. mails. And to finance our patriotic work we must beg and scrape together the few pitiful dollars necessary to keep this movement and this cause alive.

There are some who might be discouraged by this state of affairs, but I am not one of them. Like all good crusaders, I am not afraid to fight. Odds do not scare me; there are some things you have to fight for. A mother does not surrender her precious child to the wolves simply because she is outnumbered. A soldier in the front line does not quit merely because the odds are against him. No, and neither can we who stand in the forefront of this battle falter in the face of adversity, either!

Speaking for myself, I shall never surrender, nor compromise, nor give a single inch in this fight for America! As long as I can hold a pen, I'll write; as long as printer's ink will print, I'll print. I will never quit or admit defeat so long as life remains in me... But I need your financial support to carry on the fight effectively. You know the need; you know the cause. Please give generously and sacrificially; --please use the enclosed envelope now, without an instant's delay.

Sincerely,

Frank L. Britton

"For twenty years I have attempted to point out the only outcome of indifference to the threat of civilization. I was laughed at by those who are now shivering in their shoes because what I explained to them and warned them against has now materialized. Now I see Common Sense the only anchor to windward which can prevent the wreck of society on the rocks of a Christless civilization. With the financial support to tell the basic facts to millions Common Sense can be the Paul Revere of this age. The Christian population is being so brainwashed that they will commit cultural hari-kari in their ignorance. It would be comic if it were not so tragic. If Christians gave 10% of the time and money they devote to professional sports the problem facing us would disappear like snow at the Equator. As it looks to me now, we are trying to slay a dinosaur with a fly-swatter. We can only exhaust ourselves doing that. We cannot slay the dinosaur. Endless chains have been worked for almost everything. Can an endless chain for Common Sense be started? We are not dopes, or are we? We can sell everything it seems but we cannot sell the most precious product now on the market, our security and survival."

Won't you subscribe to COMMON SENSE (only $1.00 a year) and do your utmost to help with a donation, too, and/or added subscriptions? Don't hesitate and regret later.

PLEASE!

A dedicated great American patriot, who deplores the apathy and/or ignorance of many Americans re: the trend toward Communism, and the alien onslaughts upon our American Way of Life and United States Constitution, who has for years been a strong supporter of the Christian Educational Association,—publisher of the Anti-Communism paper "COMMON SENSE", edited by Conde McGinley, Box 807, Union, New Jersey,—in a letter to another American patriot said:

"What is the answer? Financial support for "Common Sense" until it hurts. Common Sense cannot long continue on its present basis. It is arithmetically and physically impossible. If Common Sense closes up, all opposition to the conspirators will soon collapse. They will read the handwriting on the wall. In my opinion every Christian patriot should send Common Sense some money EVERY WEEK, even if it is only $1.00 salvaged from cigarette money, soft drink money, liquor money, movies, and other unnecessary comforts and luxuries. Ten thousand such persons could turn the tide, and a hundred thousand such persons could make a grease-spot of the conspiracy in six months time. If Common Sense shuts its doors we might as well push in the chips and join the other side. If we do not do it willingly we will have to do it unwillingly very soon. Conde McGinley is a living saint in my opinion. Must he also be a martyr?

HELP!

Our American Birthright, Christian Heritage and our American Way of Life need your active DEFENSE.

Use and Distribute "FIGHT COMMUNISM" Stamps

200 for $1.00

1000 for $ 4.00

2000 7.00

5000 16.00

10000 for $30.00

12500 35.00

25000 60.00

The use of these stamps is an easy and inexpensive way to "STAND UP AND BE COUNTED." Their use injures or embarrasses no one other than "tools" of those of evil influence, communists, anti-communists, traitors, dual loyalists, fellow travelers, one-worlders, political demagogues, gullible stooges (including educators and churchmen, both male and female), "experts" (?), and professional "do-gooders" who "for gold", fear, flattery, pressure, publicity, or jobs "fall for glib talk." They sell their American and Christian Birthright to so-called "good americans" (many of whom are conniving aliens) who, behind the scenes, are promoting Un-American and Subversive projects.

Beware of the "phoney" flag-wavers, the smearers, and those who demand protection of the Constitution and our Government, but finance, plan and work for their destruction.

Is The NAACP Discriminating Against Its Own Race?

By Davis Lee—Editor of THE HERALD
South Carolina's Leading Negro Newspaper
Anderson, South Carolina

The desegregation movement has shifted to Atlanta, Ga. This writer predicted in an editorial in The Telegram a year ago that the battle for integration for the rest of the South would be won or lost at Atlanta.

This Atlanta movement is not completely understandable to a Negro who thinks, and who wants to see his race advance on all fronts. Atlanta is the Negro capitol of the world. There is no city anywhere in the world where Negroes own as much as those in Atlanta.

It is the Negro business, educational and cultural center of the world. There is no other city that has 6 Negro colleges and universities. There are 228 Negro college instructors and professors employed by these 6 institutions.

It appears that the Negro leaders are a little off in their thinking. The State of Georgia would give those 6 schools of higher learning whatever millions they needed to make them second to none, and it appears to me that any sensible Negro would rather attend a school operated by his own race than he would one operated by others.

What will happen to these 6 colleges and universities if Negroes are admitted to the white colleges of the State? What will happen to these 238 instructors and professors under integration? What will happen to the other 4 Negro colleges in the State?

Someone has definitely sold the Negro leaders a bill of goods on integration to the extent that they are willing to sacrifice economic advantages for the mere privilege of associating with others on an equal basis. The unfortunate thing about this whole issue is that the masses of Negroes have had no opportunity to be heard. This integration movement is carried on by the so called upper-crust Negro, the fortunate few, and they do not have the welfare of the masses of Negroes at heart.

These leaders who are fighting for desegregation, practice more segregation against their own people than they themselves are victims of at the hands of others. Not only are the unfortunate members of our race segregated by the so-called upper-crust Negro, but these well situated advocates of integration will not help the masses of our race although they are able to do so.

Ted Lewis is one of Atlanta's leading Negro business men. Some time ago he was having financial difficulty. He went to some of the city's leading Negro business men, including the bankers, and tried to borrow $2,500. They turned him down flat. He went to the small loan department of the C and S Bank. One of the officials went over his plans with him, and then recommended that he borrow $5,000 instead of $2,500. The bank let him have the money without question. As the result he is a success today, a credit to Georgia and his race.

These big Negroes who are running rough shod over everyone in their fight for integration, won't help deserving members of their own race, and they are creating so much bitterness, hatred and prejudice, that before long these little Negroes won't be able to get the help in the future from white people that they have gotten in the past.

These advocates of de-segregation want to FORCE white people to de-segregate, but THEY haven't de-segregated within OUR race. In some sections of South Carolina the yellow Negroes won't have anything to do with the dark Negroes. I know Negroes in Charleston who will not speak to other Negroes because they are of different stations in life.

In some sections the yellow and mulatto Negroes have churches that dark Negroes cannot attend. Out from Bridgeton, New Jersey is a community known as Gould-Whipping up racial tension is the never ending goal of the Zionist controlled NAACP.

Arthur Spingarn

town. They are all white looking Negroes, and will not accept a pastor sent by the Bishop unless he is near white!

The educated Negro shuns the uneducated of his race. The professional members of our race will rob and exploit the unfortunate members of our race. But they refuse to associate with them on an equal social basis.

When you know the facts about the so-called big Negroes, this fight for integration becomes a huge joke. At the rate that they are going, in a few years there will not be a Negro race. You can hardly conceive of sensible leaders advocating a movement that is going to do away with our race. But that is what they are doing.

There are no people who should be prouder of their race, and their heritage, than us. We should not suffer from a persecution or inferiority complex to the extent that we will go to court to convince others that we are their equal.

You should feel that you are the equal of any and demonstrate it by your character and deportment, and you will win the respect and admiration of others to the extent that you will not be regarded as a Negro, but as a man, an American.

A Message To Patriots

Conde McGinley

These words are addressed to the good Patriots who are regarded as leaders in the forces opposed to the left or to the Marxist inspired conspiracy.

True and sincere leaders who as yet do not realize that Communism and Socialism were set up by self-styled Jews as fronts, to be used to break down Christianity and condition us for Talmudic rule, should NOT be afraid to explore the Jewish direction and control of subversion.

You Patriots who follow the line of least resistance by combatting the surface or fronts for Marxism, cannot hope to successfully defeat the evil forces by scattering shots. It is necessary to HIT the target, to NAME the enemy. Certainly they will fight back when you hit the vital spot, but we cannot turn the tide without the truth being brought out in the open!

Naturally you are not expected to brave this ruthless enemy until you fully understand what is behind this clever diabolical group, camouflaged as religion. THERE IS LITTLE DIFFERENCE BETWEEN COMMUNISM AND ZIONISM!

There is an unlimited mass of reliable information, books and booklets, written by respected historians, to help you understand. This information IS available if you look for it as I did years ago when I became aware there was something behind communism more clever and more powerful than could be seen on the surface. Now I am in a position where I can quickly put honest, courageous Patriots in touch with these incontestable sources. There are Patriots who write and say they would like to expose the Jewish organizations but dare not for fear of retaliation. A number of them have told me so.

Crusaders who are not prepared to survive such attacks as have been made on me will likely need to continue doing what good they can until such time as they feel sufficiently secure and determined to learn the real enemy and NAME him regardless of smear attacks.

Until ALL anti-communist leaders disregard smear tactics by the Marxist hate groups and adopt effective tactics there is no chance to save our country. Our people have slept too long; now enemy intimation is forcing our side to tiptoe along and scatter our shots.

You just cannot kill an octopus by cutting off one of his tentacles; you have to reach and destroy his brain or heart!

Almost everyone says they know some good "Jews." The question is, do they help support the many Jewish organizations which work underhanded and in the background to direct anti-Christian, anti-American movements?

NEW YORK, (PTA)—New federal legislation permitting an increase of immigration of refugees into the United States by 20,000, and increasing American refugee relief expenditures by $10,000,000 above the funds already sought by President Eisenhower, were requested today by the United States Committee for Refugees.

This figure has since been raised to 50,000 immigrants.

PRIDE OF RACE.

Do you know of any people other than Negroes and Jews who show so little "Pride of Race"? The Negro seems to want to dilute his blood toward the white while the Jew changes his name to some Anglo-Saxon name to fool the public. WHY?

The N.A.A.C.P. Is NOT Controlled By Negroes!

To the citizens of Little Rock:-

Like most people in Little Rock, you know that the organization responsible for the present racial strife in your city is the so-called National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP). You know, too, that the head of the NAACP in Little Rock is a militant Negress by the name of Daisy Bates, and that she has been the prime instigator in forcing Negroes into Little Rock schools.

Since it is the NAACP which is forcing integration upon Little Rock schools, it would be well if you knew a few pertinent facts concerning that sinister organization.

The first thing you should know is that the NAACP is NOT a Negro organization. It is not controlled by Negroes, nor does it operate for the benefit of Negroes. Instead, it is run by a group of New York Jews, and its goal is to force total and compulsory racial mongrelization upon every American family!

If you question this, then observe the above photograph closely. It appeared last year in the official NAACP magazine, CRISIS. It shows the real leaders of the NAACP at a meeting in New York. On the left is the national president of the NAACP (since 1939), Arthur Spingarn. He is shaking hands with ex-senator Herbert Lehman, an NAACP board member. Both are Jews! In the background is the underling, Daisy Bates, the Negress who fronts for the organization in Arkansas.

Citizens of Little Rock! These are the outsiders who are forcing your children to integrate with Negroes! You cannot possibly meet this threat until you know your enemy! The fact is that the NAACP is, and has always been, run by Jews, most of whom have pro-Communist records.

Furthermore, you must realize that Ike Eisenhower himself is a willing stooge of the NAACP, as the picture to the left indicates. This photo, taken March 10th, 1954, shows Eisenhower singing the Star Spangled Banner from the platform of the NAACP in Washington, D.C. At his elbow is NAACP official Channing Tobias, a member of more than 50 Communist fronts!

Citizens of Little Rock: you are standing in the front line of this battle! It is up to you to defeat this criminal conspiracy against America! Do not compromise with these alien Jews who would force your children to mix with Negroes! Do not yield an inch in your determination to keep your schools white! Defeat this Jewish plot to mongrelize your schools!

KHRUSHCHEV'S TWO FACES

Published By America's Future, Inc.

We have been forced to listen to a lot of big talk from the Soviet Red Boss as he traipses around America. Khrushchev blathers about "peace" and "friendship" and something called "coexistence" with capitalism. It has been noted that Mr. K is quite an actor. He can display a kindly and even humorous front to cover up his scheming and murderous intent. And the stuff he has been handing us is very different from what he dishes out back home in Russia.

Not long ago Khrushchev made a speech to his own people. Only small portions were revealed to the outside world. But one of our agencies monitored the whole speech. It told the Russian people they had one great enemy. It is capitalism. "It is impossible," said Khrushchev, "to defeat the enemy without learning to hate him wholeheartedly." And he said the Russian people can only be happy when they are struggling against the enemy. This means hatred of all non-communist peoples: in fact, this is a basic essential of communism, according to Khrushchev.

Incidentally, this brings up another phase of Khrushchev's visit - and those of his deputies, Kozlov and Mikoyan, before him. It is the behavior of certain American businessmen, who ought to know better, in falling over each other to grab at the lure of Soviet trade. But thank heaven there are American businessmen who do know better. I think very special congratulations are due the Allen-Bradley Company of Milwaukee, which ran full-page advertisements in a number of newspapers just before Mr. K's arrival. The ads were appropriately surrounded by a black border. The company was not trying to sell its products.

WHAT RUSSIA IS LIKE

We have been hearing so much of late about the great strides made by Red Russia that some Americans are developing a fear complex. I am not talking about military or nuclear might. I will leave that to the experts, though I note that even they seem unable to agree on who is ahead in this field. But we are told that in a few years

It was only trying to point out the terrible dangers in dealing with the Reds. I wish I had space to quote the whole ad. But here is one paragraph. This visit, it said, "will give Khrushchev the additional standing he needs among the Russian people and among the peoples of those countries teetering on the communist edge. It will create despair among the peoples of his communist-enslaved nations." The ad then calls on us to stand fast against any deals or concessions to Khrushchev.

If we had a whole lot more businessmen with the courage and conviction of the Allen-Bradley Company, perhaps we would not have to worry so much about our gullible political leaders.

Red Russia will overtake, and surpass us industrially, economically and commercially. This is one of the things which seems to affect certain of our weaker-kneed businessmen. They want to latch on to some of this supposedly great Russian trade which is going to flow out of the Soviet Union any day now.

This is a good time, there-

State, although it may have broken down social barriers in some degree, has also produced a spirit of greed and selfishness which is a direct incentive to crime...the old virtues of neighborliness and mutual help tend to disappear and with them much of the force of public opinion which not so long ago was a better deterrent to the prospective criminal than all the policemen and prison officers...

"One of the unhappier features of post-war Britain is the deterioration which has taken place in the relationship between police and public. Some blame for this state of affairs must rest with the police forces, but much of it can be laid at the door of the multifarious regulations...All modern methods of crime detection, all penal reform, all psychiatric treatment apart, the only certain way to reduce crime is to restore a respect for the old-fashioned virtues so that the criminal becomes once more an object of contempt to his fellows and the policeman once more a protector and friend to the people who employ him.

But at best it is a dangerous and destructive tool because, once established, "whatever strength it has..will be used to amass greater strength by draining away the strength of individuals."

It was the genius of the original American system that it found a way to make government man's servant, not his master. As Mr. LeFevre puts it:

"The American government did not perform with efficiency. It wasn't intended to. And the American people, finding themselves for the first time without a ruling despot, were hard-pressed to know what to do. Consequently, unable to call upon their government for aid or guidance, they set to work themselves. Their energies, uncontrolled by living authority, changed the world. Their achievements, in a few short years, altered all of history. For the first time, freedom was proclaimed as a national policy. Individualism was given full sway, and government was reduced to puppeteering functions."

But it didn't last. Mr. LeFevre tells us why. And while he doesn't pretend to have all the answers, he gives us some sharply defined guides for recapturing that which we have lost. We must read and heed - or we, the last, best hope of freedom, will sink once more into those sloughs of slavery which always await the unwary and apathetic. - Rosalie Gordon

CRIME AND THE WELFARE STATE

"The number of indictable offenses (in England) known to the police was 545,562 in 1957 as against 479,710 in the previous year...The average prison population in England and Wales in 1958 was over 20,000 as against about 8,000 twenty years earlier and the number of people in prison has risen almost continuously since the war.

"As a nation we emerged from the war with our sense of right and wrong somewhat blunted and our children are now feeling the effects of our newly-found and misguided tolerance...A certain decline in our standards of right and wrong has been accompanied by what almost amounts to a collapse of family feeling and influence.

"Both these factors combine with a third to bring about a contempt for the law. The coming of the Welfare fore, to take a realistic look at the system of Russian communism with which we are told we must compete. One good thing came out of Vice-President Nixon's visit to Russia. It permitted several fine newspapermen to get inside Russia with the Nixon party. I am indebted for most of the following facts to three men - Willard Edwards of the Chicago Tribune, Westbrook Pegler, whose column appears in many newspapers, and Ralph deToledano, who wrote an account of his Russian visit for National Review. Whatever you may think of their views, there is one thing which can be said for these three men. They operate in the old tradition of good reporters. They do not take handouts from official or semi-official sources. They don't print what they are told without checking to see if it is true or not, or if it has some purpose behind it. They go out and dig up the facts - they see for themselves. That is true reporting.

The showplace of Communist Russia is its capital, Moscow. A great new hotel, only two years old, looks ten times as old. Its creeping elevators, with doors which stick, would not be allowed in an American building. The bathroom tiles are already loose. Incidentally, there is ostensibly no 12th floor in this 30-storey structure. That floor is occupied by a contingent of the Soviet Secret Police, with facilities for tapping every room in the building! This is a good indication of how much freedom foreign visitors have in Russia.

There are rows and rows of new apartment houses in Moscow. They are all alike. The masonry is cracked and the bricks are crumbling. The buildings are only 50 feet deep. Behind them, as Mr. Pegler discovered by looking beyond the facades, are old log houses - still occupied and surrounded by filth. The apartment houses are new, but they are already falling apart. The rooms are small, partitioned by curtains. Laundry hangs on lines strung across these tiny rooms. Mr. deToledano said Moscow was the only city he had ever seen "which builds its slums new." In the entire city there are only two groups of buildings which do not need paint, plaster or overhauling. One is the pre-revolutionary structures. The other is the building which houses the MVD-the Soviet Secret Police.

There are no super-highways in Russia. The much-touted Red industrial system turns out only 100,000 cars a year. We produce around five or six million cars a year. Even the four-lane highway leading into Moscow has broken paving and big holes. Its traffic consists mainly of trucks. Most other roads in Russia would not be permitted to exist in the United States. The Russians' great jet plane seems the height of luxury to them. Americans would be more comfortable in the crudest plane of a non-scheduled airline in America.

THE ALL-DAY GOOF

As to communist agriculture and industry, Russia uses 43 percent of her labor force to produce what Mr. Pegler calls the "nauseating garbage" served in Moscow's finest hotel. We use only seven percent of our workers to raise food - and we produce so much we don't know what to do with it. In the middle of summer in Moscow, there were no beans, peas, asparagus, spinach in the hotels or the stores. A collective farm looked like an abandoned movie set, with old shacks, and a single tractor in the middle of the field. But nobody was running it. Flying 2,000 miles over Red Russia's great new industrial area in the North, no towns or roads can be seen. Russia's so-called "Chicago of Siberia" has unpaved streets - and apartments with "modern" kitchens which include wood or coal-burning stoves! The very best plant for turning out machine tools and heavy machinery is 20 or 30 years behind a merely average American plant.

Mr. deToledano summed up the whole picture. By a terrific concentration of effort, labor, and scientists, the Soviet Union can build rockets and mass produce a jet plane. But taking the system as a whole, we are dealing with a backward country. The main incentive is to work as little as the slave-masters will tolerate. As he says: "If the coffee break was an American tradition, the Soviet Union had anticipated it by the all-day goof." And he adds that Red Russia has neither the transport, the industrial capacity, nor the trained work force to fight a long war. This all adds up to a point I have stressed before: That communism and its slave-state cannot compete with freedom and capitalism - unless we ruin our own system with all the welfare-state, government-control gimmicks which are an essential part of the communist-socialist system. - John T. Flynn

Book Review "REVOLUTIONARY THINKING"

THE NATURE OF MAN AND HIS GOVERNMENT by Robert LeFevre, Caxton, Caldwell, Id., $1.00.

It is difficult to believe, until you have read them, that only 87 pages can contain so much wisdom, and plain common sense, about man's overriding and omnipresent problem - how to govern himself and still remain free.

Rose Wilder Lane, in a brief introduction, calls Robert LeFevre's little thesis "revolutionary thinking." It is. So was the thinking behind the formation of the American government. And it is a terrible commentary on how far we have strayed from our original inspiration that a simple restatement of certain basic principles is correctly called "revolutionary."

The author is editorial writer for the Colorado Springs Gazette-Telegraph and founder and president of the Freedom School. The latter is a non-profit institution which conducts summer classes to teach the philosophy of individualism and the American heritage. His little book ought to be used as a primer in government in every high school in America. It brings home to the reader and student - in clear and simple words - the fact that government is a tool invented by man for his own protection.

UNITED JEWISH APPEAL: A JEWISH TAX DODGE

New Party To Fight UJA Gifts To Israel

TEL AVIV (P-O)—A new political party, which got underway too late to enter candidates in the forthcoming elections, has come out against allocation of funds from the United Jewish Appeal to political parties in Israel.

The New Regime, which is the name of the new party, says it will campaign against such allocations within two weeks unless the government and the UJA end their allocations to the parties.

(Over $3. million annually of UJA funds are allocated to Israel political parties for specific use in their welfare work).

If you are an American taxpayer, the clipping to the left should interest you. It was taken from the Sept. 18, 1959 issue of "Jewish Post & Opinion" and it reveals the astounding information that the various political parties in the Jewish state of Israel collectively receive $3,000,000.00 annually from United Jewish Appeal (UJA).

The catch is that United Jewish Appeal is a tax-exempt U.S. fund raising organization which poses as a "charity". In other words, all contributions to it are tax-exempt. And since United Jewish Appeal is America's largest "charity" --larger even than the Red Cross, the March of Dimes or any other--the annual cost to the U.S. Treasury Department is tremendous. In fact, UJA boasts of having raised in excess of $1 billion dollars since 1948 --every penny of it tax-exempt!

But, as the above clipping clearly indicates, at least a part of the money is blatantly used to support the various political parties of Israel. The rest is used, directly and indirectly, to maintain the government of Israel: its army, its economy and its national budget.

Ironically, if you make a contribution to an American political party, it is not tax-exempt. Furthermore, U.S. political parties are prohibited by law from spending more than $3 million annually. Yet America's Jews are paying out $3 million yearly to Israel's political parties--and getting a tax-exemption to boot!

It is high time U.S. Jews were forced to pay their legitimate taxes instead of piping their money into Israel under the phony guise of "charity." The tax-exemption status of United Jewish Appeal should be cancelled by the U.S. Treasury at once! Write your Congressmen!

HYSTERICAL JEWS DEMAND EXTERMINATION OF ANTI-SEMITES

Dear Friend & Patriot:-

You have heard a great deal about swastika-painting incidents these past few weeks. The papers have been full of it. You would think, from the TV and newspaper accounts, that hundreds of Jews were being massacred, that thousands of Jews were being abused, that millions of Jews were living in abject terror! Not so. Not a single Jew has died, not a solitary one has been injured, not one has been terrorized or even insulted, so far as can be determined.

And yet hysteria has been generated not only in the U.S., but all over Europe.

In Sweden a patriot by the name of Einer Aberg, who has long distributed anti-Zionist literature, has been arrested at Jewish instigation --for distributing literature.

In Germany the Adenauer government is quaking with anxiety. They fear the Communists, working hand in glove with organized Jewry, are starting another hate campaign against Germany similar to the one of 1932...

In Holland, France, Denmark, England --all over Europe-- the hysteria over the swastika has spread.

As for the United States, three teen-age pranksters are being threatened with charges of treason for daubing a little paint on a wall in New York...

And in North Carolina the much touted poet, Carl Sandburg, has come out with a demand for the death penalty for anyone "caught painting a swastika on a synagogue". "Make the arrest and trial quick as possible, then death and extinction", he was quoted by the Associated Press.

All this hysteria and frenzy because a few dozen individuals, most of them pranksters and juvenile mischief-makers, daubed a little paint on a few synagogue walls...

And yet as silly and absurd as all this hysteria may seem, it should be remembered that these are the self-same tactics which international Jewry used 20 years ago to arouse the entire world into a holy crusade against "nazi" Germany. The same shrill screams of persecution, the same pitiful moans, the same lies, the same phony smear techniques being used now were used then --and fifty million people died in the holocaust which followed.

Now comes word that Israel is stirring up trouble with Syria and Egypt (the UAR) in a border dispute. Three years ago, it should be recalled, Israel's Jews almost started a third World War over Suez when they egged France and England into joining them in a vicious attack on Egypt. Intervention by Eisenhower averted a conflagration then, but if the time ever comes when Israel gets the worst of it in a conflict with the Arabs, then we will be called upon to save Israel, even if it means hydrogen warfare! And the radio and press, which have exaggerated a few paint daubings into an international witch hunt, can be depended on to arouse the American public to a fever pitch of excitement in preparation for the slaughter...

I do not have to remind you that the American Nationalist is one of the very few journals in America (and the world) which dares to print the truth about these things. The February issue is now in the works and will come out later this month. Meantime our mailing campaign continues to all parts of the country. To the very utmost of our capacity we are trying to get the truth out; we are carrying on this fight with every ounce of our strength! ENCLOSURE

The following was found at the Library of Congress on page 6 of the (Communist) DAILY WORKER of May 26, 1928.

The Communist Party considers it as its historic duty to warn all Workers, regardless of their color, against the common enemy, against the Master Class.

The Negro Race must understand that Capitalism means racial oppression and Communism means Social and Racial Equality.

D E M A N D S

I. Abolition of the whole system of Race Discrimination; full Racial Equality.

II. Abolition of all laws which result in Segregation of Negroes. Abolition of all Jim Crow laws; the law shall forbid all discrimination against Negroes in selling or renting houses.

III. Abolition of all laws that disenfranchise Negroes on the ground of color.

IV. Abolition of all laws forbidding Inter-Marriage of persons of different races.

V. Abolition of all laws and Public Administrative measures which prohibit, or in practice prevent, Negro children from attending general public schools or universities.

VI. Full and equal admittance of Negroes to all Railway Stations, Waiting Rooms, Restaurants, Hotels and Theatres.

VII. The War and Navy Departments of the United States Government should abolish Jim Crow distinctions in the Army and Navy.

VIII. Immediate removal of all restrictions in all Trade Unions against the membership of Negro Workers.

IX. Equal opportunity for employment, wages, hours and working conditions for Negroes and White Workers.

Khrushchev Came Talking Peace!

Sewryn Bailer, a Polish Communist leader, who defected to the West, charged that in April, 1955, Khrushchev told a group of Warsaw Communists:

"We must realize that we cannot co-exist eternally. One of us must go to his grave. We do not want to go to the grave. They do not want to go to their grave, either. So what can be done? We must push them to their grave."

Dimitry Z. Manuisky in a speech made in 1931 before the Lenin School of Political Warfare (he became an officer of the U.N. Security Council in 1949) said: "War to the hilt between Communism and Capitalism is inevitable. Today, of course, we are not strong enough to attack. Our time will come in 20 or 30 years . . . The bourgeoisie will have to be put to sleep. So we shall begin by launching the most spectacular peace movement on record. There will be electrifying overtures and unheard of concessions. The capitalist countries, stupid and decadent, will rejoice to cooperate in their own destruction. They will leap at another chance to be friends. As soon as their guard is down, we shall smash them with our clenched fist."

RED CROSS BLOOD BANKS PEDDLE CONTAMINATED NEGRO BLOOD!

When alien race-mixing propaganda finds its way into the classroom and Sunday school, there to poison the minds and morals of this nation's youth, it is clearly a matter for serious concern. But when the same propaganda reaches into the hospital clinic and operating room to jeopardize the lives of the sick and dying, it is nothing short of criminal. Such is the case with the Red Cross policy of mixing Negro and white blood in its blood banks.

The Red Cross adopted the policy of indiscriminately mixing Negro and white blood several years ago as a result of pressure from numerous professional race-mixing groups such as the NAACP, the Urban League, the Anti-Defamation League of B'nai B'rith and others who shrilly insist that..."all human blood is the same because all the races are the same". In other words, the Red Cross decision was based not on medical facts, but upon propaganda considerations pure and simple.

The criminal implications of the Red Cross's policy of mixing Negro and white blood lies in the fact that there are significant differences between Negro and white blood -- a fact which has been known (though suppressed) for generations. A substantial percentage of the Negro population is afflicted with the so-called "sickle cell trait", a genetic or hereditary blood characteristic peculiar to the Negro race. When two Negroes with this trait have offspring, they are sickly and sometimes die. Whites do not inherit the sickle cell malady, but when sickle cell contaminated blood is given to ailing white patients, severe damage can result.

Despite these well known facts, the Red Cross prefers to endanger the lives of tens of thousands of sick and dying white patients by exposing them to contaminated Negro blood transfusions rather than concede that Negro and white blood do differ. In fact, the Red Cross refuses to even test Negro blood for the sickle cell trait for fear of the adverse propaganda such a procedure would attract...

To correct this shameful and criminal practice, the state of Louisiana has already passed laws compelling the Red Cross and other organizations to label all blood by the race of its donor. Other states are considering similar legislation. But until such protection is universally afforded, the health and the very lives of countless thousands of ill and dying patients will continue to be jeopardized by blood transfusions which the Red Cross refuses to identify by race, and which it even refuses to test for the dread "sickle cell" malady. Something should be done about it, and promptly!

THE DISEASE THAT STOPS NEGROES FROM FLYING

SICKLE CELL TRAIT CAUSES

As the first Negro enrolled at Trans World Airlines' stewardess school in Kansas City last month, petite New Yorker Margaret Grant was not too different from her four white roommates. Like them, the 21-year-old Hunter College graduate had mentally cataloged TWA's nine different airplane types, memorized code names of cities along its air routes, became familiar with galley operations aloft. Despite her studiousness, however, Margaret did not graduate with her class last week. She was dropped on the ninth day of training when doctors discovered she had inherited a blood disorder which made flying dangerous to her health. The disorder: sickle cell trait.

Margaret, one of an estimated 1,520,000 U. S. Negroes (eight per cent) who are poor flying risks because of the abnormal trait discovered in 1910, had always been healthy although "slightly on the thin side." And while she will probably never suffer from her blood disorder, it has made her especially selective about a future husband. If his body also harbors hemoglobin S, the gene for sickle cell trait, then 25 per cent of their children may be born with a more serious blood malady dubbed sickle cell anemia. Their bodies, like those of about 80,000 other Negroes, will be highly receptive to jaundice, pneumonia and tuberculosis, may suffer from leg ulcers, bone joint and muscle pains. They may even die before they reach age 30. For death is the only known "cure" for sickle cell anemia. Said Margaret, grimly aware that her husband-to-be will have to be almost blood-pure: "He'll have to take a sickle cell test."

Miss Grant was congratulated by N. Y. Gov. Harriman before training stint.

INTERNAL DISORDERS IN FLIGHT

Electron microscope shows cell (L) with sickling gene; forms weird shape (r.).

How can an unsuspecting person know he has sickle cell trait? The answer: through tests. These tests have been routinely administered for 12 years at Chicago's Michael Reese Hospital.

"You can't tell people not to have children," says famed hematologist Dr. Aaron Josephson. "But we feel we should warn couples with sickle cell trait of possible dangers to their children."

Hospital researchers siphon a drop of blood from patients, slide it under a microscope, look for red blood cells that normally resemble a batch of poker chips. After they add a special chemical, however, odds are 25-2 the cells will change into bizarre, elongated, crescent shapes indicating the presence of hemoglobin S. In high altitude flying a lack of oxygen in the bloodstream triggers the same sickling reaction, "piles up" misshapen sickle cells in the small capillaries of such organs as the spleen and liver, causes them to swell and become irritated.

NOTE: Under pressure from the Urban League and other race-mixing groups, TWA recently accepted a Negro stewardess for training. She was let go when it was discovered that like many other Negroes her blood disintegrates at high altitudes.

As indicated by the above news article, which appeared recently in the Negro magazine, JET, the blood of many Negroes will not permit them to fly at high altitudes. Other racial characteristics of Negro blood make them immune to malaria. Still another racial peculiarity of some Negro blood is its harmful effect upon white patients who receive it in blood transfusions. Notwithstanding all this, the Red Cross still mixes white and Negro blood, and refuses to even test Negro blood for contamination...

PRESBYTERIAN RACE SCANDAL HIT

Mystery Surrounds America's Largest Communist Paper

SPECIAL—It is hard to find an American newspaper or news magazine which does not at least go through the motions of opposing Communism, and a large proportion of the commercial press is fervent in damning anything and everything smacking of Marxism.

And yet there is not a single major news source in America today which dares to tell the public the basic truths concerning Communism; truths which would allow the public to know the nature and identity of the enemy.

The public instead is fed a bland diet of generalities, aphorisms and myths. Communism is lambasted, but always as an abstract bogey; never as an evil reality. The specifics of Communist treason are glossed over for fear of arousing controversy. This is particularly true when the identity of those behind Communism is in danger of being revealed, because no American newspaper will ever print the simple, fundamental fact that the Communist conspiracy in America is, and always has been, Jewish.

Tax Free Support Of Israel Parties Banned

SPECIAL—For a good many years now the five major political parties of the Jewish state of Israel have utilized a most useful subterfuge to draw financial support from U. S. Jewry on a tax free basis. Since contributions by Americans to American political parties are distinctly NOT tax-exempt, this has been no mean accomplishment.

Although Israel is a pee-wee country, smaller in population and area than the state of Maryland, the money American Jews have paid out to support its political parties has been astonishing—$3,000,000 annually, to be specific.

To be able to divert that sum year after year into the treasuries of foreign political parties, and write it off their income tax returns as "charitable" deductions,

Shown above is the home of the Little Rock Negro student whose home was bombed last month. Looking over the scene is police chief, Gene Smith, whose club-wielding cops forcibly integrated Central High school two years ago. The FBI was also called into the case.

As would be expected, the nation's commercial press and TV nets immediately seized upon the incident as another "hate-bombing" and rushed scores of photographers, newsmen and camera crewmen onto the scene. But when it was discovered that the bombing had been perpetrated by the Negroes themselves in order to discredit white supremacists, the matter was quickly shushed up. Incidentally, numerous other bombings in the South are also believed to have been committed by Negroes and Jews striving to arouse sympathy for themselves. The Atlanta synagogue bombing of two years ago was a classic example . . .

Bombing Faked In Little Rock To Arouse Sympathy For Negroes

LITTLE ROCK—Two years ago, when the hysteria over the synagogue bombing in Atlanta, Georgia, was at its height, the American Nationalist (June, 1958) ran a front page article entitled: "Senseless Synagogue Bombings Condemned", in which it was pointed out that the act was obviously perpetrated . . . "by someone hoping to generate pity for Jews and indignation against white supremacists".

"It wouldn't be the first time", we wrote, "that trouble-making Negroes or Jews bombed or burned their own churches, synagogues, union halls, etc. to attract sympathy. The tactic is an old one. . ."

Seven months later (Jan. '59) the American Nationalist offered a reward of $250 for "information leading to the arrest and conviction of the persons responsible for the bombing. . . An additional reward of $250 (making for a total of $500.00) will be posted if the individuals guilty of the bombings are revealed to be Jews, or in the pay of Jews", we added.

This reward was offered, be it noted, at the very moment when George Bright, alleged "ringleader" of the "Atlanta Five", was standing trial for the bombing. At that time we again emphasized that the dynamiting simply did not make sense, and that the five "anti-semitic" white supremacists accused of the act obviously were being framed.

"The plain and brutal implication to be drawn from all this", we wrote in the January issue of the American Nationalist, "is that the synagogue bombing was the work of Jewish provocateurs. It was, so to speak, a Reichstag fire in reverse. This may on first appearance seem to be a wild—even a fantastic—conclusion, but it is not nearly so wild as was Eisenhower's almost hysterical denunciation of the non-existent Confederate Underground for the act".

Subsequently a jury acquitted George Bright of any connection with the dynamiting, and at last report he was suing the officials involved for false arrest. But the real bombers were never caught and, for that matter, the nation's press, in contrast to its previous lavish coverage of the

Church Leadership Claims Interracial Marriage Is Godly

PHILADELPHIA—The average lay member of the Presbyterian church is not a radical, nor is he particularly keen on racial integration. Neither is he desirous of seeing his daughter marry a Negro. But the leaders of the Presbyterian church (USA), America's fifth largest Protestant denomination, obviously have other ideas. This is evident by their numerous public statements, by their official resolutions and pronouncements and, perhaps best of all, by their official church periodicals.

Thus we find the Presbyterian hierarchy publically taking the stand that all churches should be integrated, and the sooner the better. The Presbyterian church has also gone on record in favor of integrated housing, education, employment and recreation—total and unrestricted integration at every level.

The Presbyterian leadership in Philadelphia has not hesitated to ally itself with the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP) in furthering these goals. In fact, on one occasion (in 1956) the Presbyterian church "loaned" the NAACP the sum of $10,000 to keep certain

Pay-Off For Little Rock Police Chief

LITTLE ROCK—In the campaign to force mongrelization upon the South, it has been the unvarying technique of the Jewish-led N.A.A.C.P. to select "soft" cities as their primary targets. A soft city is one in which the mayor, the police chief, the board of education and (above all) the local newspaper are pro-integrationist. Clinton, Tennessee was such a town. So was Nashville. So is Atlanta—the next major city scheduled to be integrated. And so, originally, was Little Rock.

On paper Little Rock was the softest city in the South in 1955-56. All the elements were there: a pliable school board, a willing mayor, a complacent population.

Church Officials Urge Intermarriage

Presbyterian Leaders Say Church Should Welcome Mixed Couples

NAACP agitators out of jail after they had lost a damage suit in South Carolina. This loan was not an unofficial act, but was taken with the official sanction and knowledge of Eugene Carson Blake, "stated clerk" and high priest of the Presbyterian hierarchy, and the action was hotly defended in the official church organ, "Presbyterian Life" (Jan. 5, '57).

Later, during the Little Rock occupation, Eugene Carson Blake arrogantly demanded (in Presbyterian Life) that Federal troops and tanks should be called out to enforce racial equality all over the South if necessary.

From all this it is clear that regardless of what the average Presbyterian may think, the small clique of ecclesiastical politicians who rule the Presbyterian church from Philadelphia have a strange, almost unnatural, penchant for supporting and furthering the doctrine of racial mongrelization.

The lay members, of course, are only vaguely aware of what is going on. A few know, perhaps, that the Presbyterian church has subsidized a number of pro-integration movies; that numerous and various books and booklets favoring race mixing have been published at church expense; that the official magazine of the church, "Presbyterian Life", manages to get in some sort of a plug for integration in almost every issue. But on the whole it's a subtle thing, and it is doubtful if one Presbyterian out of a hundred knows that all this is mere preparation for what is to come: inter-racial marriage. In fact, most Presbyterians would be angered at the suggestion that their church's racial program is aimed, ultimately, at paving the way for miscegenation. Yet the official propaganda now being disseminated from Presbyterian headquarters in Philadelphia plainly shows that inter-racial marriages are the next big goal of the church.

If you doubt this, read the latest (February, '60) issue of the magazine, "Social Progress", published by the "Department of Social Education and Action of the Board of Christian Education of the United Presbyterian Church". This magazine, according to its editors, is intended to . . . "provide a forum for the church on subjects of social concern for Christians. It includes . . . guides to worship, study, and action for leaders of social action groups in local churches, presbyteries, synods, presbyterial and synodical societies" . . .

The February issue of "Social Progress" is devoted entirely to the question of inter-racial marriages, and consists of 13 articles written by various theologians and laymen on the question: "Would you want your daughter to marry a Negro?" . . .

Significantly, 11 of the 13 articles were written in the affirmative; only two took a negative stand. And both of the latter went to great lengths to apologize for their position. Ben Rose of the Union Theological Seminary, for example, would not want his daughter to marry a Negro—but only because . . . "such a marriage, in the culture in which we now live, would cause too many people too many heartaches". The other dissenter was Paul S. Wright of First Presbyterian church in Portland, Oregon who wrote: "In my book, segregation is sin; in-

Eugene Carson Blake is the "stated clerk" and the leading figure in the bureaucracy which rules the United Presbyterian Church from Philadelphia. He is a rabid integrationist and has advocated the use of force to integrate the South. Under his tutelage the multimillion dollar educational and training program of Presbyterianism (including its press) has been prostituted into a propaganda organ for popularizing the cause of racial mongrelization.

ter-racial marriages are not". Nevertheless he stated he would not favor seeing his daughter marry a Negro. . .

But the writers of the other 11 articles all emphatically and articulately favored inter-racial unions and all stated categorically that they would have no objection if their daughters brought home a colored son-in-law.

But let's start at the beginning of this Presbyterian propaganda magazine and work our way through. To start things rolling, "Social Progress" prefaced the articles, with the statement that . . . "not infrequently we receive the suggestion that an issue of Social Progress deal with the problem of racial intermarriage. In the following pages we offer several thoughts on the subject . . . a symposium" . . .

The magazine then presented articles written by 12 prominent church people (plus an article submitted by the Detroit Presbytery) on the question: "Would you want your daughter to marry a Negro?" . . .

The first article was by Markus Barth of the Federated Theological Faculty at the University of Chicago. Quoth Mr. Barth:

"All talk and all striving for desegregation and for full equality and community rights and duties

The twelve-story structure shown above is the Witherspoon Building, headquarters of the United Presbyterian Church (USA). Here the hierarchy which governs one of America's largest Protestant denominations is centered. The Presbyterian church owns and occupies the entire building. The editorial offices of Presbyterian Life are on the sixth floor, while the offices of the General Assembly (and of Eugene Carson Blake) are on the fifth floor. And on the eighth floor is the "Social Education and Action" section, which publishes the monthly Presbyterian magazine, "Social Progress", from which the quotations in this article were taken.

of the people of different races living together in America is but rubbish and blindfolded groping or beating about the bush—unless it includes the willingness to accept and to protect racially mixed couples. Desegregation, integration, equalization cannot stop at the door of sex. It rather includes sexual relations. . . All talk and action in favor of racially mixed marriages are sheer doctrinarianism and hypocrisy—unless those speaking and acting are ready and willing to let their daughters marry a black-skinned partner, and to receive that partner as openheartedly, gladly and hopefully into their family, as they would receive a white son or daughter-in-law". There is considerably more of this same drivel by Mr. Barth, but let us proceed to another article in the same magazine—this one by Marguerite Hofer, of the Pittsburgh Presbytery. Says she:

"As Christians we must face these taboos and unreasonable fears very realistically. . . We must sort out Christian truth from folk ideas. . . When we draw away from the concept of the dignity of man as it is applied to the propriety of marriage between two people who may just happen to be of a different so-called race, we are in truth denying the human dignity of the barred or taboo group".

Meaning she favors mixed marriages. Now let us take the article authored by Richard Siciliano, of New York.

"It is my guess", he wrote, "that advances in human relations will lead to more integration, and this inclusiveness will lead to more mixed marriages—and I think this is good. . . Yes, I would want my child to marry a Negro. I know the Negro to be human, a person in need of God's grace equally with me, made with God's stamp upon him and thus equal in respect to his rights and his dignity. If my child should decide to marry a Negro, this would mean that he also believes this. This would not be an easy marriage, but it would be a good one, blessed of God. . . I think the church must say to us, 'Marriage is God's gift to men, and this gift is not limited as to race'. God has already made this clear to us. He has related us all to all other men by blood. He made man in his own image. We belong to each other."

If you're still game, let's go to the next article, this one by Dean H. Lewis, Division of Evangelism of the United Presbyterian Church. He too believes in inter-racial marriages.

"There is nothing", he simpered, "that would keep me from welcoming a Negro as my son-in-law. . . Whoever Melinda marries will be my 'son' and I will welcome him as such".

Similarly inclined was Richard E. Gray, Palm Springs Presbyterian Church, Hialeah, Florida.

"I would want my daughter to marry a Negro only after I was satisfied that she had considered the obstacles besetting such a marriage", said Mr. Gray. "I would make every effort to have her see that mixed marriage, whether it be of the interfaith, intercultural, or inter-racial variety, has a hard row to hoe. . . But if I were satisfied that my daughter was really in love with a Negro boy, and by 'in love' I mean that phrase in the highest sense of the word, and if I were convinced that the two of them had what it would take to overcome such obstacles as the 'in-law' situation, and the rearing of children with mixed parentage, then I would support them both".

There is more, much more, of the same which, for lack of space, must be passed over. The last article in the series, however, deserves at least some attention. This one was prepared by the "Social Education and Action Committee of the Detroit Presbytery", and it is about twice the length (4 pages) of the other articles. The Detroit Presbytery takes a rather "scientific" view of the question, and cites numerous experts and authorities (among them Swedish sociologist Gunnar Myrdal) to prove that there is, after all, very little difference between the races anyway. Negroes, according to the authors, are just as intelligent as whites, and have a rich cultural heritage. "There were great Negro states in Africa when Europe was a sparsely settled forest", they assure us. Moreover, they point out that the Declaration of Human Rights of the United Nations (article 16) guarantees that . . . "men and women of full age, without any limitation due to race, nationality, or religion shall have the right to marry and found a family".

"When such marriages are contemplated or consummated," continued the Chicago Presbytery, "Christian churches and their members should assume their rightful role toward the couple and their children". . .

ANALYSIS: The first thing to remember is that the articles reviewed here were not taken from an N.A.A.C.P. source, nor from a radical Negro publication, nor even from a Communist paper; they were taken from an official Presbyterian periodical. And although the normal lay Presbyterian does not share the same viewpoints (and probably does not even know of the existence of "Social Progress"), the fact still remains that this propaganda was prepared, paid for and distributed by the Presbyterian church and it represents an official viewpoint of the church.

The second thing to remember is that none of this has the slightest bearing on religion, the sanctimonious protestations of its authors notwithstanding. What they have done is to dress up their own screwball sociological precepts in the garments of religion—and passed it off as Christianity.

In other words, because they believe in inter-racial marriage they represent it as "Godly". . .

Because they advocate integrated housing, employment and other such "political" measures, they hold them out as "Christian" objectives. . .

Little Rock

The governor (Faubus) was a moderate and the U. S. congressman, Brooks Hays, was an integrationist. Most important of all, Little Rock had a turncoat newspaper and police chief. . .

As a matter of fact if it had not been for the rabid pro-integrationist editor of the Arkansas Gazette, Harry Ashmore, it is extremely doubtful if the N.A.A.C.P. would ever have attempted to integrate the city's schools to begin with.

And had it not been for the rene-

The pictures above were taken from various Negro publications. They illustrate the Negro concept of how integration should work. It is a concept obviously shared by the propagandists at Presbyterian headquarters in Philadelphia, who publish "Social Progress", because the statements appearing in the "above" inserts were photographed directly from that magazine.

One of the couples shown here is married and has a mulatto child. The Presbyterian hierarchy approves of such marriages, and believes interracial couples should be welcomed into the church. . .

Another couple (above right) is planning marriage. The writers of "Social Progress" believe such a union should be "accepted" and "protected" by the church. . .

Other Negroes are shown consorting with white women at play, dances and at social functions. It is the official stand of the Presbyterian church that segregation ANYWHERE is un-Christian and immoral. Thus, there is no basis on which they could criticize any of these activities — even if they wanted to.

It is high time Presbyterians everywhere took an interest in these matters. The writers of "Social Progress" have already emphatically stated they would have no objection to their daughters marrying Negroes. It is up to rank-and-file Presbyterians to decide whether they would approve of having a Negro son-in-law in their own families. That, after all, is what the Presbyterian leadership is planning for eventually.

Because they preach the doctrine of "equality" between the races, they palm it off as the teachings of Christ. . .

The tactic is a familiar one and is regularly employed every Sunday by thousands of social gospel ministers of every denomination. The technique is to read a few passages from the Bible, make a few earnest comments about Christ and his teachings—and then proceed with a dissertation on racial equality, "tolerance", the United Nations, "civil rights", "anti-semitism", or whatever else is on the political or sociological agenda for the week. The "sermon" ends with more devout references from the Bible, the singing of a hymn or two, and a prayer. The congregation leaves and few if any realize they have been the victims of a clever brain-washing operation; that the "sermon" they just heard was in reality a sociological lecture sandwiched in between a few hymns and scriptural readings. . .

The same methodology is, of course, employed in the writing of religious and church literature, of which the February issue of "Social Progress" is a classic example.

To the uninitiated it may appear to be religion, but in point of fact it is propaganda in its most vile and obscene form. Actually, what could be more degenerate than a church publication which states that . . . "desegregation, integration, equalization cannot stop at the door of sex. It rather includes sexual relations. . . All talk and action in favor of racially mixed marriages are sheer doctrinarianism and hypocrisy—unless those speaking and acting are ready and willing to let their daughters marry a black-skinned partner, and to receive that partner as openheartedly, gladly and hopefully into their family, as they would receive a white son or daughter-in-law". . .

The inescapable fact is that the Presbyterian hierarchy is preparing and conditioning its clergy and its laity for the day when inter-racial romances and marriages will not only be sanctioned by the church, but encouraged and welcomed.

If you question this, read the above excerpts from "Social Progress" again. Better still, order a copy of the February issue from Presbyterian headquarters yourself. The address is: Department of Social Education and Action, United Presbyterian Church USA, 830 Witherspoon Bldg., Philadelphia 7, Pa. The cost is 25c.

gade chief of police, Eugene Smith, integration would never had succeeded. For it was Smith who finally broke the back of active resistance to the integration of Central High school with fire hoses, mass arrests and police terror after the Federal troops had pulled out.

THE HERO

For a while after that policeman Smith was a hero to the northern press and the integration crowd. In fact, dozens of outside reporters on the scene at the time signed a laudatory "testimonial" to him in recognition of his "courage" in standing against the "mob". Time magazine and various other national magazines praised him to the skies. . .

Gene Smith gained nation-wide notoriety when he used fire hoses and police clubs to "integrate" Little Rock's Central High after Federal bayonets had failed. From that day onward tough guy Smith, shown here arresting a white demonstrator near the school, was loathed and hated by his neighbors. . .

As for editor Harry Ashmore, he received even more plaudits. He was regarded as the sage of the "moderate" South, and was given a Pulitzer prize. His pronouncements against governor Faubus and racial segregation were everywhere repeated and reprinted. He wrote a book and received numerous awards, including one from the Anti-Defamation League of B'nai B'rith. He was much in demand as a speaker at Jewish sponsored banquets in northern states. . .

Faked Bombing

case, did not report the acquittal. So far as most Americans know, the last word on the Atlanta synagogue bombings was that five white supremacists were under arrest for the crime. . .

Last month another bombing, this one in Little Rock, made the headlines when the home of one of the five Negro students enrolled at embattled Central High school was bombed. In typical fashion TV crews moved onto the scene, reporters converged on the bombed house and newspapers across the nation splashed the news on page one. The FBI was called into the case. . . From all appearances another Negro martyr was in the making; another national hate campaign against Little Rock was underway. . .

Suddenly, as quickly as it had mushroomed, the story died. Not another word of it appeared in the papers; no further mention was heard on radio and TV. The reason? The culprits were tracked down and they turned out to be Negroes. . .

One was a 31 year old Negro chauffeur, the other a 17 year old Negro high school student. They had bombed the home of one of the Negroes enrolled at Central High in order to create sympathy for them—and to discredit white supremacists.

Like we said, the tactic is an old one. . .

NOTE: Many newspapers did not report the final outcome of the Little Rock bombing. As a consequence most of the millions of Americans who heard and read about the incident still believe it was the work of segregationists and white supremacists. That, too, is an old tactic. . .

Press Report

NASHVILLE, TENN.—The current wave of Negro "sit-in strikes", together with the massive street demonstrations by Negro mobs in numerous Southern cities in recent months, has been widely applauded by "liberal" elements all over the U. S. (including such personages as Eleanor Roosevelt and Nelson Rockefeller, and such organizations as the N.A.A.C.P. and the Communist Party). Without exception these groups and individuals have lauded the Negro "freedom fighters" for their courage in defying Southern segregation laws, and the press has expressed unstinted praise for the Negro rioters and their leaders. All this is in marked contrast to the stand taken by the same "liberals" (and the press) when whites demonstrated peacefully against compulsory integration at Clinton, Tennessee four years ago, and at Little Rock a year later. Then, the press was rightly indignant over what it called this "defiance of the law", and heartily approved when tear gas was used against white men, women and even children at Clinton. Sanctioned approval was also expressed when bayonets were called out at Little Rock. . . And when the man who first sparked the massive resistance at Clinton, John Kasper, was jailed three consecutive times for leading the protest demonstrations, venom and vituperation were heaped upon him with insane fury by the integrationists. To this day John Kasper languishes in a filthy prison for having inspired the Clinton demonstrations. . . And yet the press and the liberal clique have nothing but praise and admiration for the Negroes who are now rioting all over the South in defiance of the law. . . (Note: John Kasper is now threatened with two more years of imprisonment unless he can raise $1,431 for fines and court costs. Although still in prison, contributions will reach him at: Post Office Box 8771, Nashville 11, Tennessee.)

SPECIAL—Although the parasitic state of Israel has bled billions of dollars from the U. S. in one form or another, the total shrinks to insignificance when compared with the money organized Jewry—the world-over-has extorted from West Germany in the form of "reparations", "indemnities" and "restitutions". . . This was inadvertently revealed by Senator Thomas Dodd (Dem., Conn.) in an article which appeared in the March 28 issue of U. S. News & World Report. "When they are completed", wrote Senator Dodd, "Germany's payments of restitution and reparations to Jewish victims of Nazism and to the state of Israel will total almost 6 billion dollars. Dr. Nahum Goldmann, president of the World Jewish Congress, has declared that Israel has received more money from Germany than from all the Jews in the world put together". . . (NOTE: Senator Dodd, a slavish toady of organized Jewry who once served as an official at the Nuremberg trials, did not explain just how "Nazi" Germany, which ceased to exist in 1945, could owe "reparations" to the Jewish state of Israel, which did not even come into existence until 1948. But then, "reparations" is a much nicer sounding word than "blackmail"—which is really what West Germany is paying.)

tial party organ in the country. It is the "Morning Freiheit" and it is printed in the Yiddish language. And yet not one American out of a thousand ever heard of it. The commercial press is afraid to even mention it for fear of being accused of "anti-semitism", for fear of arousing controversy, for fear of offending its Jewish advertisers. . .

Thus, while fulminating against Communism as a theoretical strawman, the press in reality is covering up and protecting Moscow's fifth column from the penetrating glare of public exposure. And so long as this mantle of secrecy protects the Communists, and so long as the American public is not permitted to know the identity of those promoting treason in our midst, then so long will the Communists continue to do their filthy work in perfect safety.

It is high time the "free" American press undertook to inform the public as to the real identity of the Communist leadership. As a starter, they might let Americans in on the secret that the only Communist daily newspaper in the U. S. is printed in Yiddish. . .

Israel Parties

Obviously called for ingenuity on the part of American Jewry—and considerable deception. The necessary camouflage has been provided by "United Jewish Appeal" (UJA), America's largest single fund raising "charity", which since the formation of Israel in 1948 has promoted considerably more than one billion dollars in tax-exempt U. S. funds—most of it for Israel.

The procedure has been for UJA to raise money in the U. S. as a tax-exempt charity, and then, through the Jewish Agency in Israel, allocate a specified amount each year to the recognized political parties of Israel for their "charitable" activities. . .

Over the years considerable opposition has developed in the U. S. to the activities of UJA, which actually functions as an arm of the Israeli government for the levying of an unofficial tax upon American Jewry. It has been pointed out that relatively little of the $100 million or so raised in this country yearly by UJA is actually spent on bona fide charity, and that the bulk of it is used to sustain the government of Israel and its economy. This being so, the organization does not legitimately qualify for a tax exemption from the U. S. Treasury department.

Of late criticism of UJA's political disbursements has been so violent that the organization has at long last decided to cease supporting Israel's political parties. Hereafter, according to the Jewish press, the various parties will have to scrounge money in this country on their own initiative. And since (presumably) contributions to them will not be tax deductible (as they are now), they may have a hard time getting money. . .

SIGNIFICANCE: By cutting off its support of Israel's political parties, (a minor part of its expenditures), organized Jewry clearly hopes to retain the tax exemption status of United Jewish Appeal, now under investigation by the U. S. government.

The fact remains, however, that the organization is not essentially charitable, and its tax exemption privileges should be cancelled at once by the Treasury department. As it stands now, United Jewish Appeal is not only America's largest single fund raising "charity", but also America's largest income tax fraud. . .

But the people of Little Rock, first intimidated by Federal bayonets and later by Smith's police clubs, did not forget. Governor Faubus, one of the most moderate governors in the South, had early turned against the integrationists and led the fight against them. Brooks Hays, Negro-catering congressman from Little Rock, was beaten by a write-in candidate. A new mayor of Little Rock was elected. . . And finally, editor Harry Ashmore turned tail and ran to the sanctuary of the Ford Foundation, where he is currently employed. That left Eugene Smith, the police chief who had integrated Central High.

Last month Smith broke. Despised by his fellow citizens, and with a son in jail for burglary, he murdered his wife and committed suicide. The idol of the integrationists, the man who had led Negroes into Central High and herded whites to jail for protesting, was finished. It was a fitting end. . .

Washington, D. C.

High Court Gives Ruling On Wiretaps

WASHINGTON, D.C. — The Supreme Court ruled 7-2 Monday that wiretap evidence may be used in state court criminal trials. This type of evidence is barred in federal courts.

In two other cases the high court rejected anew contentions that the First Amendment shields witnesses from having to answer questions of congressional Communist probes.

The wiretap case came from New York, where the state constitution and laws permit police wiretapping if it is authorized by a state supreme court justice.

The ruling upheld U.S. District and Circuit Courts in New York. These courts refused to bar use by the state of wiretap evidence against Burton N. Pugach, a Bronx attorney accused of arranging a lye attack on his girl friend.

Chief Justice Earl Warren and Justice William O. Douglas dissented.

In New York Pugach's counsel, George J. Toaro, commented that the ruling "for all practical purposes has destroyed the security of privacy that citizens are entitled to in their homes under the Federal Communications Act."

In separate 5-4 decisions, the court upheld contempt of Congress convictions of Carl Braden, Louisville, Ky., and Frank Wilkinson, Los Angeles.

The two challenged the authority of a subcommittee of the House Committee on Un-American Activities to question them during an investigation in Atlanta, Ga., July 30, 1958, about Communist activity in the South.

In their appeals, they relied mainly upon the First Amendment which guarantees freedom of speech, press and assembly.

The four dissenters were Warren and Justices Douglas, Hugo L. Black, and William J. Brennan.

Justice Potter Stewart spoke for the majority in both cases. He cited the court's 5-4 decision of June 8, 1959, in the case of Lloyd Barenblatt, a former educator.

In this decision the court held the Committee on Un-American Activities may investigate the danger of overthrow of the government, and said the Communist Party is so closely related to this that the committee may ask a witness about past and present Communist Party membership despite objections based on the First Amendment.

Wilkinson is field secretary for the National Committee to Abolish the House Committee on Un-American Activities. Braden is an advocate of racial integration.

In another dissenting opinion in which Warren and Black joined, Douglas said that if Wilkinson could be questioned concerning his opposition to the committee, he saw no reason why editors are immune from questioning.

"The list of editors will be long as evident from the editorial protest against the committee's activities, including its recent film, 'Operation Abolition,'" Douglas said.

In the Braden case, Douglas, with Warren, Black and Brennan concurring, cited the court's decisions in the school desegregation cases and said:

"I had supposed until today that one could agree or disagree with those decisions without being hounded for his belief and for concluding that his belief was beyond the reach of the government."

America Not Founded As A Democracy

U.S. Constitution Was Written As An Anti-Democratic Safeguard

SPECIAL—One of the most fraudulent, and certainly one of the most pernicious, arguments now being used to brainwash the American public into submitting to compulsory racial integration is the contention that racial segregation deprives Negroes of their Constitutional rights. According to the integration crowd, Negroes are guaranteed equality by the Declaration of Independence, by the U.S. Constitution and by the Bill of Rights, which declare that . . . "all men are created equal." Hence, the integrationists contend, those who oppose racial integration are not only flaunting the Supreme Court, but the Constitution itself. They are, in addition, doing violence to the traditions upon which this nation was founded, and are undermining the very foundations of our "democracy."

This, superficially, is a compelling argument in favor of integration, and it is one which is pounded (almost literally) into the head of every schoolchild. And yet it is a lie and a fraud; a corruption of the truth made possible only because the public is so deplorably ignorant of the Constitution that almost any distortion or myth about it can, and does, "pass" unchallenged.

It isn't just the general public which is ignorant, either. Indeed, it is questionable if the average college graduate of today has any real conception as to just what is, or what is not, to be found in the U.S. Constitution; it is even doubtful if most of them have any clear idea of the relationship between the Declaration of Independence and the Constitution, or of the Bill of Rights and the Constitution. Many could not accurately describe all three . . .

It is in the presence of such abysmal ignorance that the agitators in our midst are able to palm off their own alien philosophies in the guise of Constitutional liberty. The canard that the Constitution, as our forefathers wrote it, guarantees Negro "equality" is an example; so is the notion that this nation was founded as a "democracy."

As for "democracy," the truth of the matter is, that the founding fathers of this nation despised and loathed the word, which they equated with mob rule, and did everything in their power to establish a form of government safe and secure from the whims, greed and passions of the commonality. The truth is, the United States was conceived as a Republic, not as a "democracy."

Accordingly, the founding fathers provided in the Constitution that U.S. Senators were NOT to be elected by the people, but were to be appointed by the various state legislatures—and they were actually selected in this manner until 1913. In that year the Constitution was amended to provide for the election of U.S. Senators by popular ballot.

For the same reason the Constitution prescribed, and still does, that the President should not be elected by popular vote, but should be named by delegates of the Electoral College. This principle has been subverted, but the fact remains that the U.S. Constitution, as written by the founding fathers, restricted the franchise to white, free males, and it further prescribed that both the President and the U.S. Senate should be chosen through indirect representation, NOT by popular vote.

Later, of course, the Constitution was altered (in 1868) to give Negroes citizenship and voting rights, and in 1920 it was further amended to give women the privilege of voting. And, as previously noted, the method of choosing U.S. Senators was changed in 1913.

But certainly no one familiar with the Constitution and its origin could ever support the absurd contention that this nation was founded as a "democracy;" the very opposite is true, because in the final analysis the Constitution can only be described as an ANTI-democratic document. In the full sense of the word it was contrived as a SAFEGUARD against democracy and mass misrule.

The safeguard did not work. The very meaning of the word, Republic, has been lost to most Americans, and with it, the meaning of the Constitution itself. Thus, out of sheer ignorance our people today believe that this nation was founded, not as a Republic, but as a democracy! For the same reason they also believe that the Bill of Rights, the Declaration of Independence and the U.S. Constitution guarantee (indeed, require) Negro equality, ergo, racial integration.

The fact is that the framers of the U.S. Constitution were mainly slave owners who did not, for the most part, even believe that Negroes should be made freemen, much less equals. Most certainly nothing in the Constitution conferred "equality" of any kind up-

Jefferson Believed Negroes

"Nothing is more certainly written in the book of fate than that these [Negro] people are to be free; nor is it less certain that the two races, equally free, cannot live in the same government. Nature, habit, opinion have drawn indelible lines of distinction between them. It is still in our power to direct the progress of emancipation and deportation peaceably, and in such slow degree, as that the evil will wear off insensibly" (page 164, Life, Writings and Opinions of Thomas Jefferson, by B. L. Rayner, Pub. N.Y., 1832; Library of Congress).

Should Be Deported To Africa

It was Thomas Jefferson who wrote the Declaration of Independence, and it was he who penned the famous declaration that . . . "all men are created equal." But as indicated by his statement above, he believed that the Negroes should be deported to Africa — an opinion which Lincoln shared. At no time did Jefferson, of the founding fathers, advocate equality or a belief in racial integration.

on Negroes. In point of fact, the very first Article of the Constitution makes a distinction between "free persons" and persons "bound to service." The first Article of the Constitution (sec. 9) also provided that a tax or duty . . . "not exceeding ten dollars for each person" could be imposed upon the importation of slaves. Article IV of the Constitution requires that slaves who escape to another state must be returned to their owners.

Obviously, then, the Constitution as our forefathers created it did not contemplate racial integration or Negro "equality;" on the contrary it codified and legalized their inequality. None of the rights, privileges or powers enumerated in it were extended to, or were meant for, Negroes. The U.S. Constitution was created by whites and for whites; the Negro's place in it is that of a piece of property—a chattel. To say that the writers of the Constitution would be aghast at the thought that someday their beloved creation would be used as a pretext for forcing white citizens to mingle with Negroes would be an understatement. In all probability the founding fathers would have started another revolution at the very suggestion . . .

What, then, of the ringing declaration that . . . "all men are created equal"? It appears where in the Constitution, or the Bill of Rights! It is found, however, in the Declaration of Independence, adopted years before the Constitution was ratified—that is, in 1776. But too was a white man's document, its author, Thomas Jefferson, in fact a slave owner. And Jefferson no more contemplated the possibility that his words would day be twisted out of context and apply to Negroes than he had contemplated the likelihood that ten-year old children some day claim a Constitutional right to equality at the polls very thought did not occur to it was incomprehensible.

Jefferson, it is true, did not believe Negroes should be slaves; he was equally strong in the belief that they should never be citizens. Therefore when he wrote that . . . "all men are created equal, that they are endowed their Creator with certain inalienable rights, that among these Life, Liberty, and the pursuit of Happiness," etc, he simply did not think it necessary to explain he was referring to white, and not to the gibbering, subhuman wretches being unloaded then from African slave ships. Nor could he have guessed someday bayonets would be pressed to the throats of Americans to compel them to accept the offspring of his slave "equals" under the pretext of the Declaration of Independence states that . . . "all men are created equal"! No man could predict that in 1776 . . .

The Constitution has, of course, been changed and amended considerably since its adoption in 1787. The most far-reaching of these was the Thirteenth Amendment (adopted in 1865) which abolished slavery, thereby nullifying parts of the Constitution which made a distinction between slave and freeman; and the Fourteenth Amendment (ratified in 1868)

LINCOLN DID NOT BELIEVE IN INTEGRATION

Although opposed to slavery, Lincoln emphatically did not believe negroes should be granted citizenship or equality, as the following quotation from one of his speeches indicates.

I will say, then, that I am not, nor ever have been, in favor of bringing about in any way the social and political equality of the white and black races, that I am not, nor ever have been, in favor of making voters or jurors of Negroes, nor of qualifying them to hold office, nor to intermarry with white people, and I will say in addition to this that there is a physical difference between the white and black races which I believe will forever forbid the two races living together on terms of social and political equality, and inasmuch as they cannot so live, while they do remain together, there must be the position of superior and inferior, and I am, as much as any other man, in favor of having the superior position assigned to the white race." (Pages 145-146, Vol. 3, Collected Works of Abraham Lincoln, Rutgers University Press, 1953).

America Not Founded As A Democracy

Constitution Was Written As An Anti-Democratic Safeguard

ICIAL—One of the most silent, and certainly one of the most pernicious, arguments used to brainwash the public into submitting to compulsory racial integration is the notion that racial segregation deprives Negroes of their constitutional rights. According to segregation crowd, Negroes are denied equality by the Declaration of Independence, by the U.S. Constitution and by the Bill of Rights, which declare that . . . "all men are created equal." . . . the integrationists contend, who oppose racial integration are not only flaunting the Constitution, but the Constitution itself. They are, in addition, violence to the traditions which this nation was founded upon and are undermining the very foundations of our "democracy." . . . superficially, is a compellment in favor of integration and it is one which is pound-most literally) into the head of every schoolchild. And yet it is a fraud; a corruption of truth made possible only because the public is so deplorably ignorant of the Constitution that it can accept any distortion or myth that it can, and does, pass unchallenged.

It isn't just the general public who is ignorant, either. Indeed, questionable if the average graduate of today has any conception as to just what is, and is not, to be found in the Constitution; it is even doubtful if most of them have any clear idea of the relationship between the Declaration of Independence, the Constitution, or of the Bill of Rights, and the Constitution. Many could not accurately recite all three . . . and in the presence of such ignorance that the agitators in our midst are able to palm off their own alien philosophies as a guise of Constitutional liberalism. The canard that the Constitution, as our forefathers wrote, guarantees Negro "equality" is simple; so is the notion that the nation was founded as a democracy.

The fact is that the framers of the U.S. Constitution were mainly slave owners who did not, for the most part, even believe that Negroes should be made freemen, much less equals. Most certainly nothing in the Constitution conferred "equality" of any kind upon Negroes. In point of fact, the very first Article of the Constitution makes a distinction between "free persons" and persons "bound to service." The first Article of the Constitution (sec. 9) also provided that a tax or duty . . . "not exceeding ten dollars for each person" could be imposed upon the importation of slaves. Article IV of the Constitution requires that slaves who escape to another state must be returned to their owners. Obviously, then, the Constitution as our forefathers created it did not contemplate racial integration or Negro "equality;" on the contrary it codified and legalized their inequality. None of the rights, privileges or powers enumerated in it were extended to, or were meant for, Negroes. The U.S. Constitution was created by whites and for whites; the Negro's place in it is that of a piece of property—a chattel. To say that the writers of the Constitution would be aghast at the thought that someday their beloved creation would be used as a pretext for forcing white citizens to mingle with Negroes would be an understatement. In all probability the founding fathers would have started another revolution at the very suggestion . . .

vide for the election of U.S. Senators by popular ballot.

For the same reason the Constitution prescribed, and still does, that the President should not be elected by popular vote, but should be named by delegates of the Electoral College. This principle has been subverted, but the fact remains that the U.S. Constitution, as written by the founding fathers, restricted the franchise to white, free males, and it further prescribed that both the President and the U.S. Senate should be chosen through indirect representation, NOT by popular vote.

Later, of course, the Constitution was altered (in 1868) to give Negroes citizenship and voting rights, and in 1920 it was further amended to give women the privilege of voting. And, as previously noted, the method of choosing U.S. Senators was changed in 1913.

But certainly no one familiar with the Constitution and its origin could ever support the absurd contention that this nation was founded as a "democracy;" the very opposite is true, because in the final analysis the Constitution can only be described as an ANTI-democratic document. In the fullest sense of the word it was contrived as a SAFEGUARD against democracy and mass misrule.

The safeguard did not work. The very meaning of the word, Republic, has been lost to most Americans, and with it, the meaning of the Constitution itself. Thus, out of sheer ignorance our people today believe that this nation was founded, not as a Republic, but as a democracy! For the same reason they also believe that the Bill of Rights, the Declaration of Independence and the U.S. Constitution guarantee (indeed, require) Negro equality, ergo, racial integration.

The fact is that the framers of the U.S. Constitution were mainly slave owners who did not, for the most part, even believe that Negroes should be made freemen, much less equals. Most certainly nothing in the Constitution conferred "equality" of any kind upon

"Nothing is more certainly written in the book of fate than that these [Negro] people are to be free; nor is it less certain that the two races, equally free, cannot live in the same government. Nature, habit, opinion have drawn indelible lines of distinction between them. It is still in our power to direct the progress of emancipation and deportation peaceably, and in such slow degree; as that the evil will wear off insensibly" . . . (page 164, Life, Writings, and Opinions of Thomas Jefferson, by B. L. Rayner, Pub. N.Y., 1832. Library of Congress).

Should Be Deported To Africa

It was Thomas Jefferson who wrote the Declaration of Independence, and it was he who penned the famous declaration that . . . "all men are created equal." But as indicated by his statement above, he believed that the Negroes should be deported to Africa — an opinion which Lincoln also shared. At no time did Jefferson or any of the founding fathers advocate racial equality or a belief in racial integration.

on Negroes. In point of fact, the very first Article of the Constitution makes a distinction between "free persons" and persons "bound to service." The first Article of the Constitution (sec. 9) also provided that a tax or duty . . . "not exceeding ten dollars for each person" could be imposed upon the importation of slaves. Article IV of the Constitution requires that slaves who escape to another state must be returned to their owners.

Obviously, then, the Constitution as our forefathers created it did not contemplate racial integration or Negro "equality;" on the contrary it codified and legalized their inequality. None of the rights, privileges or powers enumerated in it were extended to, or were meant for, Negroes. The U.S. Constitution was created by whites and for whites; the Negro's place in it is that of a piece of property—a chattel. To say that the writers of the Constitution would be aghast at the thought that someday their beloved creation would be used as a pretext for forcing white citizens to mingle with Negroes would be an understatement. In all probability the founding fathers would have started another revolution at the very suggestion . . .

What, then, of the ringing declaration that . . . "all men are created equal"? It appears nowhere in the Constitution, nor in the Bill of Rights. It is to be found, however, in the Declaration of Independence, adopted 13 years before the Constitution was ratified—that is, in 1776. But this too was a white man's document; its author, Thomas Jefferson, was in fact a slave owner. And Jefferson no more contemplated the possibility that his words would some day be twisted out of context to apply to Negroes than he would have contemplated the likelihood that ten-year old children might some day claim a Constitutional right to equality at the polls. The very thought did not occur to him; it was incomprehensible.

Jefferson, it is true, did not believe Negroes should be slaves, but he was equally strong in the belief that they should never be citizens, either. Therefore when he wrote that . . . "all men are created equal, that they are endowed by their Creator with certain inalienable rights, that among these are Life, Liberty, and the pursuit of Happiness," etc, he simply did not think it necessary to explain that he was referring to white men, and not to the gibbering, sub-human wretches being unloaded even then from African slave ships . . . Nor could he have guessed that someday bayonets would be pressed to the throats of white Americans to compel them to accept the offspring of his slaves as "equals" under the pretext that the Declaration of Independence states that . . . "all men are created equal"! No man could have predicted that in 1776 . . .

The Constitution has, of course, been changed and amended considerably since its adoption in 1789. The most far reaching of these was the Thirteenth Amendment (adopted in 1865) which abolished slavery, thereby nullifying those parts of the Constitution which made a distinction between slave and freeman; and the Fourteenth Amendment (ratified in 1868) which extended full citizenship to Negroes.

But while the Fourteenth Amendment extended citizenship and equal rights to Negroes, there is nothing in it, nor in any other part of the Constitution, which requires the mixing of Negroes and Whites in public schools or anywhere else. Time after time prior to 1954 the U.S. Supreme Court ruled on the question, and in each instance decided that while Negroes must be granted EQUAL educational facilities with whites, they need not be integrated. The "separate-but-equal" doctrine prevailed as the law of the land for three quarters of a century, and one Supreme Court after another upheld its validity not only with respect to education, but in cases involving interstate transportation and other public facilities.

ENTER EARL WARREN

Suddenly, in 1954, a brain-washed, alien-oriented Supreme Court ruled that integration was the law of the land, and that Negroes must hereafter be integrated in the schools, in public parks, in railways, in recreation areas, in public housing—everywhere. The Court based its ruling upon the Fourteenth Amendment.

But the Fourteenth Amendment read exactly the same in 1954 as it did in 1868 when it was adopted; not a word nor a punctuation mark had been changed. On what basis, then, did Warren, Frankfurter et al decide that the wording of the Fourteenth Amendment meant one thing in 1868 and something else in 1954? Well, the Court argued that "psychological knowledge" was more advanced in 1954 than in previous years. The Court didn't pretend that the Constitution or the 14th Amendment read differently now than when written; they insisted merely that psychological knowledge has improved. In other words, the Court did not interpret the Constitution, but Freud, and it was on that plane of reasoning that they rendered the infamous "Black Monday" decision which made racial integration the "law of the land."

SUMMARY:—Today Americans are falsely told that racial integration is the law of the land and that anyone who opposes it is in principle undermining our democracy and our Constitution. The fact that this nation was founded 170 years ago not as a "democracy" but as a Republic is ignored. Furthermore, the Constitution, as originally written, made a clear distinction between Whites and Negroes, and for the first 76 years of our nationhood the Negro's status under the Constitution was that of a non-citizen. In 1868 the Constitution was amended to give Negroes full citizenship, and for 89 years thereafter the Negro enjoyed full citizenship. In 1954 the Supreme Court suddenly decreed that this was not enough—that Negroes must be "integrated" with whites in order to enjoy their full Constitutional rights...

Thus, Mr. Warren, Felix Frankfurter et al have managed to find something in the Constitution

HOLLYWOOD—A great deal of fuss and furor was raised some months ago over the conversion of actress Elizabeth Taylor to Judaism prior to her marriage to the Yiddish crooner, Eddie Fisher. For Liz the conversion was long overdue, since Fisher is her second Jewish husband—her first spouse having been one Avrim Hirsch Goldbogen, otherwise known as Mike Todd. But her decision nevertheless attracted considerable attention and publicity. One nationwide publication, the "American Weekly," devoted considerable space to a story entitled: "Why Elizabeth Taylor Became A Jew," the thesis of which was that she yearned for Judaism because it is such a full and noble religion. The article also revealed that Marilyn Monroe, Polly Bergen, Carol Baker and Dianna Dors have either been converted, or soon will be, to Judaism.

Actually, as the American Nationalist has been pointing out for a number of years, the motion picture and TV industry is entirely a Jewish monopoly, and very few white Gentiles ever get ahead there without a Jewish connection of some sort. It's one of Hollywood's best kept secrets, but many of filmdom's brightest luminaries owe their stardom to the fact that they are either Jewish, or else are married to Jews.

A Jewish wedding for Liz...

Millions of movie struck fans will find that statement hard to believe, but here are just a few big name Gentile stars who have at some time during their careers been married to Jews: Janet Leigh (Curtis-Schwartz), Lili Palmer (Feiser), Claudette Colbert (Pressman), Anita Louise (Adler), Madge Evans (Kingsley), Jennifer Jones (Selznick), Joan Bennett (Wanger-Feuchtwanger), Alan Ladd (Carol-Lederer), Merle Oberon (Korda), Joyce Mathews (Berle), Eleanor Parker (Friedlob), Ruth Roman (Hall-Schiff), Nancy Olson (Lerner), Eleanor Holmes (Rose), Gig Young (Rosenstein), Miriam Hopkins (Littvak), Myrna Dell (Buchtel), Joan Blair (Coplin), Dick Powell (Blondell), Gary Merrill (Davis), Betty Garrett (Parks), Debbie Reynolds (Fisher), Gracie Allen (Burns-Birnbaum), George Montgomery (Shore), Betty Grayson (Kober), Marta Toren (Bercovich), Viveca Lindfor (Slegal), Ann Rutherford (May), Linda Darnell (Liebmann), Rosemary Clooney (Ferrer), Marie McDonald (Karl), Sally Rand (Finklestein), Kathleen Hughes (Ruben), Vera Ellen (Rothschild), Ed Sullivan (Weinstein).

So much for the Gentile stars who have married Jews. Now for a partial listing of the Jewish stars: Tony Curtis (Schwartz), Joan Blondell, Charlie Chaplin (Thonstein), Eddie Cantor, Betty Davis, Melvyn Douglas (Hesselberg), Hedy Lamar (Kelsler), Paulette Goddard, Judy Garland (Gumm), Judy Holiday (Tuvim), Paul Muni (Weisenfreund), Danny Kaye (Kaminsky), Groucho Marx, Martha Raye, Edward G. Robinson (Goldenberg), Kennan Wynn (Leopold), Ed Wynn, Farley Granger, Robert Merrill, The Ritz Brothers, Henry Morgan, Benny Baker (Zifkin), Jack Benny (Kubelsky), Mary Livingston (Marks), George Burns (Birnbaum), Kitty Carlisle, Sue Carol (Lederer), Milton Berle, Lew Lehr, Jerry Lewis (Levitich), Peter Lorre, Victor Borge, Pinkey Lee, Sammy Kaye, Morrie Amsterdam, Joseph Schildkraut, Sid Silvers, Ray Bolger, Tony Martin, Ben Blue, Shelley Winters, Sam Levenson, Billy Rose, Joe E. Lewis, Sophie Tucker, Piper Laurie, Georgie Price, Kirk Douglas, Hal Horton, Dorothy Price, Roberta Peters (Peterman), Jan Peerce, Bessie Venuita, Jeff Chandler (Grossel), Roberta Linn (Dubin), Mitzi McCall (Steiner), Lillian Roth, Hal March, Lynn Bari, Monica Lewis, Susan Cabot (Shapiro). And this is only a partial listing...

"This is the tragic love story of the century." So began a revolting story in a recent issue of CONFIDENTIAL magazine, which reveals details of an inter-racial "romance" between Jewish actress Kim Novak and the Negro, Sammy Davis. "The tragedy of this story," driveled CONFIDENTIAL, "is they were born 100 years too soon." With that leadoff, the article proceeds to describe in torrid detail how Hollywood's most touted "love goddess" became infatuated with the Negro entertainer, and how her desire to marry him was frustrated by the head of Columbia pictures, Harry Cohn. Seems that Cohn regarded her as a "...$20 million dollar property" which was being jeopardized by damaging gossip. "Have a fling if you must," Cohn was quoted as admonishing them, "but don't get married" ... It was all very tragic.

which their predecessors for 165 years had overlooked: they found that the U.S. Constitution requires the integration of the races. Or at least that is their claim.

Obviously if Americans knew a little more about their Constitution the Court could never have gotten away with such nonsense.

Editor's Report

UNITED EVANGELICAL ACTION, official organ of the National Association of Evangelicals, is one of the better fundamental religious periodicals. In a recent issue the magazine pointed out the practice of certain individuals who seek to enhance status and prestige by purchasing order "doctorates" from diploma mills. The magazine pointed out that a fake degree (D.D., Ph.D., etc.) from five to seven years to acquire an accredited seminary or university while diploma mill "degrees" are obtained by virtually anyone for dollars.

We think United Evangelical has a good point. Anyone, who preacher or otherwise, who attains "Doctor" to his name should be required to name the university or university which bestowed it, and the recipients of such degrees are proud to give out that information for the weird characters who spend a diploma mill "doctorate"; they are obvious frauds and charlatans, no matter what brand of religion or politics.

THE Sept. 18th issue of the Jewish Post reveals that "over $1 million annually of the funds raised by the United Jewish Appeal are allocated to Israeli political parties." These for the support of Israel's various political parties, it should be noted, are raised in the U.S. on a tax free basis, one of the most disgraceful abuses of the tax-exemption privilege we have ever witnessed.

projects. The Israeli government is now asking that all such funds be diverted into Israeli bonds, with the assurance that they can be cashed in any time within 30 days when needed. According to the Jewish Telegraph Agency (JTA), more than $12,000,000 has already been purchased in this manner, and even greater investments are anticipated once the plan becomes better known.

The beauty of the scheme, from the Jewish viewpoint, is that the U.S. Treasury foots a large percentage of the bill. It should be noted that a substantial proportion of the money raised in this country by organized Jewry comes from well-to-do Jews (and Jewish corporations) who pay from 50% to 75% (and up to 92% in some cases) of their income in taxes. This means that when a Jew in, say, the 75% bracket gives $1000 to a tax-free Jewish institution, he is in reality giving only $250 of his own money and $750 in Treasury money. That is why they are so eager to contribute to such organizations. And of course the knowledge that such contributions will eventually end up in the Israeli treasury is bound to be an added inducement to give. . . . As always, the American taxpayer is the real victim.

SIDELIGHT: It is literally impossible for right-wing groups in the U.S. to obtain tax exemption status even when their sole activity is educational. You can get a tax deduction for helping to underwrite the economy of Israel, but funds used to propagate patriotism for America are taxed at the full going rate. . . .

not mention any intention on the part of Israel's Jews to defray any part of the program, which is ironic in a way, since thousands of Israeli Jews are now drawing compensation from the West German government for having been deported from Germany during the Hitler regime. The Israeli government is also exacting "reparations" from Germany to the tune of $715,000,000 for having "forced" the Jews to settle in Israel. . . . These reparations are still being paid annually, incidentally.

But even though Israel's Jews have exacted far in excess of $1,000,000,000 from West Germany in reparation and atonement payments, the Jews of Israel have not paid out one cent to the hundreds of thousands of Arabs whom they callously (and illegally) deported from Palestinian (now Israeli) territory in 1948.

Instead, they expect others—the UN and the U.S.A.—to solve the problem by resettling the refugees in neighboring countries at their own expense. And it bothers the Jews not at all that hundreds of thousands of these dispossessed Arabs still huddle in miserable refugee camps on the border of Israel, subsisting on miserly rations doled out by the UN—handouts which Israel does not even

NEW YORK—The nation's only Gentile-owned radio network, the Mutual Broadcasting System, has gone into bankruptcy. Ironically, Mutual's founder, A. J. McCosker, died in Miami Beach the same day the bankruptcy petition was filed in New York. The nation's other three radio-TV networks (NBC, CBS, ABC) are Jewish owned and controlled.

SPECIAL—During Nikita Khrushchev's visit to the U.S., there was a notable silence on the part of U.S. Jewry regarding the alleged persecution which Jews are suffering in Russia. One probable reason for the silence: Khrushchev's only son, who accompanied him on the trip, is married to a Jewess (see TIME magazine, May 5, 1953). Also, according to the influential B'nai B'rith Messenger (May 2, 1953), Khrushchev's wife is a Jewess. . . . Moreover, in an earlier issue (Oct. 18, 1957), the B'nai B'rith Messenger, which is one of the country's largest Jew papers, and read Yiddish, chev as a boy learned. . . . "to speak and read Yiddish, which he still commands superbly. His first love," continued B'nai B'rith Messenger, "was Nadia Lazarovna, a Jewish neighbor's daughter. . . . Over 40 years passed since then and Khrushchev, the son of a Cossack blacksmith, became the most powerful man in Russia. His rise to power had been largely due to the material support given to him during his studies, first by the grateful Mariupol Jewish community and later on by his first love's brother, Lazar Kaganovich." . . . The Jews of Russia, obviously, are suffering horribly under Khrushchev.

WASHINGTON, D.C.—The kept commercial press has censored the story, but organized Jewry is up in arms over the so-called "anti-Jewish remarks recently made by Senator Ralph Flanders of Vermont. Said Flanders: "The disturbing fact is that many citizens of Jewish faith seek a relationship with the foreign state of Israel which is different from that which other Americans have with Israel and different from that which Jewish citizens themselves want with any other nation. There are Jewish organizations which daily foster this special relationship. . . . For that nation they solicit vast sums which are in part used for relief, in part for economic assistance and in part for political purposes, all under the benefits of tax-free contributions. It was and is my contention that private funds turned over to a foreign government should come under careful scrutiny, to determine to what extent they qualify for tax relief."

It has failed to draw, even in the Jewish districts—a fact which the Jewish press has been bemoaning for some weeks. ("In New York, where the Jewish population is in the millions," wailed the NATIONAL JEWISH POST in a recent issue, "the film is doing so poorly that its makers may withdraw it after a run of only a month or so. And this in the face of advance publicity for years both with the book itself and the play, which is still running in many parts of the world" . . .)

ly dubbed by the film industry as a colossal dud; as box office poison.

Notwithstanding all this, the U.S. State Department selected "Diary" as the sole American entry in the Moscow Film Festival, held in August. The picture was picked by the State Department from five movies suggested by the motion picture industry and therefore is supposedly the best this country has to offer in the way of motion pictures.

Just why the State Department should have chosen a Jewish propaganda play, and a box office flop at that, to send to Moscow is something of a mystery. The picture can hardly enlighten the Russians as to our way of life, since the film's setting is not in the U.S., but Holland. The villains are Germans, the heroes and heroines are Jews, and the story is all about the "Nazi" persecution of the Jews, etc. etc. ad nauseum. Anyway, the picture shows over well in Moscow, since city has more Jews than any city on earth, next to New City. Like the suffering Jewish martyrs of Anne Frank bring tears to their eyes.

Press Report

HOLLYWOOD—Victor M. Carter has succeeded Herbert J. Yates as president of the Republic Pictures Corp., one of filmdom's major producing companies. Victor "Carter" is a Jew, as are practically all the other heads of the important Hollywood picture firms. (Notable exceptions: 20th Century Fox, whose president, Skouras, is a Greek; and Walt Disney's Productions).

NEW YORK—The nation's only Gentile-owned radio network, the Mutual Broadcasting System, has gone into bankruptcy. Ironically, Mutual's founder, A. J. McCosker, died in Miami Beach the same day the bankruptcy petition was filed in New York. The nation's other three radio-TV networks (NBC, CBS, ABC) are Jewish owned and controlled.

SPECIAL—During Nikita Khrushchev's visit to the U.S., there was a notable silence on the part of U.S. Jewry regarding the alleged persecution which Jews are suffering in Russia. One probable reason for the silence: Khrushchev's only son, who accompanied him on the trip, is married to a Jewess (see TIME magazine, May 5, 1958). Also, according to the influential B'nai B'rith Messenger (May 2, 1958), Khrushchev's wife is a Jewess. . . . Moreover, in an earlier issue (Oct. 18, 1957), the B'nai B'rith Messenger, which is one of the country's largest Jew papers, stated that Khrushchev as a boy learned . . . "to speak and read Yiddish, which he still commands superbly. His first love," continued B'nai B'rith Messenger, "was Nadia Lazarovna, a Jewish neighbor's daughter. . . . Over 40 years passed since then and Khrushchev, the son of a Cossack blacksmith, became the most powerful man in Russia. His rise to power had been largely due to the material support given to him during his studies, first by the grateful Mariupol Jewish community and later on by his first love's brother, Lazar Kaganovich. . . . The Jews of Russia, obviously, are suffering horribly under Khrushchev.

WASHINGTON, D.C.—The kept commercial press has censored the story, but organized Jewry is up in arms over the so-called "anti-Jewish remarks recently made by Senator Ralph Flanders of Vermont. Said Flanders: "The disturbing fact is that many citizens of Jewish faith seek a relationship with the foreign state of Israel which is different from that which other Americans have with Israel and different from that which Jewish citizens themselves want with any other nation. UN May Resettle Victims Of Jewish Terror Very Soon

UNITED NATIONS—The Arab refugee problem, which has kept the Middle East in constant turmoil ever since Israel's Jews evicted some 880,000 Arabs from their homes in Palestine in 1948, will again be brought before the new session of the United Nations General Assembly which convened in September. According to a Jewish Telegraph Agency (JTA) dispatch carried in the B'nai B'rith Messenger recently, Dag Hammarskjöld has come up with a proposal to resettle the refugees in the nearby Arab countries at UN expense—meaning American expense, since the U.S. has always shouldered the greater part of the UN's refugee program, and almost certainly will in the future.

The new resettlement program outlined by Hammarskjöld is expected to cost about $2,000,000,000—more than $2,000 for each Arab man, woman and child evicted by the Jews. The JTA dispatch did

Shortly before its release, LIFE magazine ran a long, tearful sob story about Anne Frank's death as a martyr in a "Nazi" concentration camp, and numerous other nationwide publications likewise gave blatant publicity to the phony Anne Frank legend.

U.S. Government OK's Your Israel Investment

WASHINGTON TRENDS: American Jews working to make investments in Israel will be interested to learn that they have the full backing of the United States Government to do so. In fact, the U.S. Government has now, without any publicity, adopted a policy of stimulating American investments in Israel. The policy provides for giving American loans to private firms willing to make investments in Israel.

As indicated by the above clipping, taken from a recent issue of the B'nai B'rith Messenger, the U. S. government has quietly begun extending loans to Jewish merchants who wish to make investments in Israel. Needless to say, American business men receive no such support from Washington but must on the contrary pay very heavy taxes for the privilege of staying in business. And part of the taxes they pay are being used by the U. S. government to support the state of Israel and to subsidize Jewish merchants who want to go into business there. As you would expect, no news of this has appeared in the kept commercial press or on the TV newscasts.

U.S. Government Underwrites Jew Investments In Israel

WASHINGTON, D.C.—Believe it or not, the U.S. government is now loaning money to Jews who wish to make investments in Israel. This is indeed a unique undertaking, all the more so since American business men in this country not only must pay taxes to finance such nonsense, but also must take their own chances in business without benefit of government aid. In other words, if you want to go into business on Main St., U.S.A., you do so at your own risk, but a Jew who wants to invest in an enterprise in Tel Aviv can get the U.S. government to underwrite the risk.

The new scheme was revealed by Jewish Telegraph agency writer, Boris Smolar, whose column appears in scores of Jewish newspapers throughout the country. "The U.S. government has now, without any publicity, adopted a policy of stimulating American investments in Israel," wrote Smolar. "The policy provides for giving American loans to private firms willing to make investments in Israel."

Smolar reported that American Jewish investments in Israel since 1948 have thus far totaled about $90,000,000. With U.S. government loans for the asking, it is expected that American Jews will step up their Israeli investments considerably in the near future.

Meanwhile, the government of Israel has come up with a new gimmick whereby U.S. Jewish groups may purchase Israel bonds on a tax-free basis. This too is quite an accomplishment, since American citizens enjoy no such tax concessions when buying U.S. government bonds.

The tax evasion scheme was explained recently to the Jewish press by Dr. Joseph Schwartz, former vice-president of the Israel Bond Organization in the United States. The idea is for U.S. Jewish fraternal, religious, labor, medical and other tax free organizations to invest their "idle" funds in Israeli bonds instead of in this country. Many such organizations have large amounts of cash on hand, it was explained, for building funds, for research and medical purposes and for similar

I am not familiar at all with the laws of the state of California but, if the information given in the enclosed letters to me from this good man, Mr. Frank L. Britton, is factual, and I have no reason to doubt that it is, I do not believe he is going to receive moral justice in this case.

I understand that similar treacherous so-called Mentally Ill laws are on the books of every state in the Union. Sir, if a perfectly normal American citizen can be incarcerated like this, and I understand thousands have been, simply because he speaks, writes and fights for God-given liberty, then we have freedom no longer than some communist intellectual says "Mr., You are nuts and must be put away." May God save us if this can be.

Therefore I ask you, Mr. Hoover, to look into this case and see that this man's rights are respected.

I have full confidence in him and am sending him a contribution in the hope that he can employ competent and loyal defense.

Yours sincerely, published one of the most fearless political journals in the United States. I never pulled a punch or compromised an issue in my life, even though I knew the day would surely come when they would drive me to the wall and wreak vengeance on me. That day has come.

This is literally and actually a fight for my life. I face it alone and without hope of winning unless you and others like you stand with me loyally and sacrificially to the best of your ability. By the best of your ability I mean just that; token support will not suffice in this desperate emergency. If you can scrape together $5.00 or $10.00, then please send it. If your means will permit you to send $20.00 or $50.00 or $100.00 or more, then please do not lay this letter aside without placing your contribution in the enclosed envelope and mailing it immediately. If ever you have received an emergency appeal from me which deserved your attention, this is it. As a patriot who believes in the things I have fought for over the years, you cannot ignore this letter with a clear conscience.

INSIDE STORY ABOUT FRANK L. BRITTON AND THE AMERICAN NATIONALIST !

Dear Friend & Patron:-

It has been five long months since I last wrote you. Possibly you have wondered --as have many others-- just what happened to me. This is what really happened to the American Nationalist.

In my last letter (in September) I reported to you that I faced the prospect of arrest and warned that if that occurred the American Nationalist would be closed down...finished...destroyed. That is precisely what did happen!

Space will not permit a detailed account of everything that transpired. The chain of events started when I was arrested on a trumped up and contrived charge of (believe it or not) wetting a stranger with a garden hose. The following day I was again arrested on the far-fetched charge of "assaulting" this same provocateur (although prior to this I had never seen the man before in my life).

As an outcome of these and other trumped up charges I was thrown into jail and kept there 45 days under the most primitive and brutal conditions imaginable. I was kept that long in jail, be it emphasized, because of the treachery of my own lawyer! This particular attorney, who styles himself as a patriot and who has received generous publicity in the American Nationalist over the years, betrayed me. He and his thieving law partner (and another attorney they brought into the case) stripped me of every penny of my liquid assets and left me destitute and helpless (and in a filthy jail) in a distant and strange city.

They took my car, my money and personal possessions.. Not content with that, one of them placed an attachment against the remainder of my possessions, thereby making it almost impossible for me to hire another lawyer --or make bail. This happened, mind you, because I trusted this lawyer and regarded him as a patriot. I know now that he is an avaricious, bloated hypocrite whose greed for money (and his cowardice) far outweighs whatever patriotism and loyalty he may once have had.

I shall not describe the struggle I went through to gain my freedom but will only say that after six weeks I managed to get word of my plight to my father in Dallas, Texas. Despite a severe heart condition he immediately flew to San Francisco and obtained my release. Four days later he died --of an heart attack.

These are but some of the things which have occurred in the last few months. I have described them in some detail because they explain why the American Nationalist suspended publication. Since you last heard from me our printing presses (both of them) have been siezed; the office in Inglewood has been closed. Only our files and other records have remained intact --and this only because a great and good patriot in Los Angeles held them in safe-keeping during all this time. For that reason not a single one of our records fell into unfriendly hands; not a single name on our subscriber list was revealed to outsiders.

Now I face the formidable task of starting my publication work anew-- a job made doubly difficult by the fact that I am under fire, and further complicated because I have neither the printing equipment nor the funds with which to operate.

There are those who would regard these odds as insurmountable. I am not among them! Eight years ago when I first started the American Nationalist the odds were equally as great. Then, as now, I had no printing press, no equipment of any kind. And yet the American Nationalist became one of the outstanding publications in this field. It was rated

(by the Anti-Defamation League and similar Gestapo sources) as being among the top three distributors of Nationalist literature in the United States. We printed some of the most effective literature ever put out on the Jewish question and the integration problem. Our literature found its way into every corner of the land --into every state and every community. I apologize to no man for the job I did.

The big job now is to get back into operation. To accomplish that I need funds not only for operating expenses, but also to defend myself against the charges still pending against me --charges which could send me to prison. Bear in mind that the attorney-general of California is a Jew by the name of Mosk. Remember also that the legal apparatus in this state is crawling with Jews, and that every single one is aching to see Frank Britton put behind bars where he will never again write or publish another article concerning the Jewish question. This is not an exaggeration; it is a simple statement of fact. Unless I get support, and quickly, I'm going to be railroaded to prison!

As a well-informed patriot you know the danger which faces every leader of this movement. And as a subscriber of the American Nationalist you must also know by now that I am not a quitter. I have no intention whatever of being intimidated by the situation or laying down on the job. I'll fight this battle to the bitter end. So long as I have the strength to hold a pen, I'll write the truth; so long as I have breath in my body, I'll speak the truth; so long as printer's ink will print, I'll print the truth. I'll never quit. If I do go down, I'll go down fighting!

But I do hope I don't have to face the battle alone. I hope you'll stand by me loyally and faithfully as I face this most crucial battle of my life. I hope you will sustain me and help me with your financial support in this critical and dire emergency.

I am asking every patriot who receives this letter, and who truly believes in this cause, to respond with a generous and sacrificial contribution. Some can give more than others; it is not for me to say what each person should give. But I do urge you most sincerely not to lay this letter aside without acting on it this minute! The situation is so acute and desperate that I am asking those who live outside of California to air mail your response if possible.

Do not, I implore you, ignore this letter, which unquestionably is the most urgent one I have ever written in my life. Indeed, my very life and freedom may well depend upon the response to this appeal.

Sincerely,

Frank L. Britton

NOTE:

Frank L. Britton is the Editor of the "American Nationalist" which was first published in Inglewood, California. However, the attached material indicates that Britton is now located at Box 5560, San Francisco, Calif. Material of Britton which has been anti-Semitic and anti-Negro in nature has been brought to the attention of the Bureau in the past. Correspondent's letter indicates Britton has been arrested on local charges in San Francisco stemming out of an altercation with someone and Britton feels that he will be railroaded to prison for life. Correspondent requested the Director to look into this case.

I have been betrayed into a trap by my own lawyers. At this time I cannot give you the details except to say that they robbed me blind and left me broke, helpless and without legal representation. These attorneys, whom I trusted, without my knowledge or permission pocketed my last cash emergency reserve. They also embezzled my car without my knowledge and then placed an attachment against my remaining possessions. That attachment is still hanging over my head!

Because of their treachery I have been reduced to the most desperate circumstances. I must immediately raise funds with which to defray the cost of my legal defense. It is sheer suicide for me to go to trial without adequate legal counsel. One of these cases is being prosecuted by a Jew named Levy. The attorney-general of California is a rabid professional Jew named Mosk. I am fighting not only for my freedom, but for my life! Do not, I implore you, leave me to face this fight alone! Your contribution is desperately needed now!

Sincerely,
Frank A. Button

PROPAGANDISTS POPULARIZE RACIAL "INTEGRATION"

The disgusting pictures shown on this page should give every American cause for thought, for they represent the ultimate goal toward which the starry-eyed exponents of interracial "brotherhood" and "integration" are striving. They also depict one of the important methods by which that goal is to be achieved...

Typical of the TV fare now being served up to the American public is this Negro jazz musician, pictured here sharing his instrument with an admirer.

In this connection it is important that self-respecting Americans realize that the vicious race-mixing program of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (N.A.A.C.P.) is being waged on not one, but on two, major sectors. On one front, integration is being implemented by force and compulsion; on the other it is being put over by propaganda. And it is important to emphasize that both are equally dangerous; that neither is a lesser threat than the other.

This concept may come as a surprise to many Americans, whose attention has been concentrated solely upon the efforts of the Supreme Court and the Eisenhower administration to bring about racial mongrelization by compulsion -- i.e. by forcing whites to mingle with Negroes in the public schools, in the armed forces, in public housing projects and elsewhere. Unfortunately, this preoccupation with the compulsory phase of the struggle has tended to obscure and overshadow the equally dangerous propaganda assault which is concurrently being carried on as a means of brainwashing Americans into accepting racial "integration".

If Americans are to avoid the total mongrelization of their Anglo-American civilization, it is obvious that considerably more emphasis will have to be given to the propaganda question than has been the case to date. In particular, patriots everywhere must learn to recognize the principal source from which most of the current race-mixing propaganda is emanating -- that is to say, the motion picture and television industries.

Shown dying in the arms of the heroine is the Negroidal hero of the interracial film, "Simba". The white girl plays part of the Negro's "assistant".

In this respect it is especially important that Americans realize that all three of the nation's major TV nets are Jewish-owned, as is the Hollywood motion picture industry. Both industries are controlled by a small group of New York Jews, many of Russian origin, and it is they who have undertaken a deliberate policy of glamourizing and popularizing Negroes at every opportunity -- as the accompanying photos attest. One thing is certain: if we are to successfully oppose the mongrelization of our civilization, we must find some way to put a stop to the flood of offensive and degenerate racial propaganda such as is currently befouling our television and motion picture screens.

Rerep SA [redacted] dated 7/10/56 at Los Angeles. b6 b7C

An article in the September 26, 1961, issue of the "San Francisco Chronicle" reveals that FRANK L. BRITTON received a sentence of six months to five years for bribery on September 25, 1961. The article indicates that BRITTON, a former publisher of an anti-Jewish and anti-Negro magazine, was found guilty of offering three policemen $1,000 each if they would free him after his arrest for assault.

On November 19, 1965, Warden [redacted] Folsom State Prison, advised that BRITTON was released on parole at 7:30 A.M. on November 19, 1965, to the State Parole Office in Los Angeles. Arrangements were made by the Parole Office for him to be employed and reside in Los Angeles. b6 b7C

The Los Angeles Office will take whatever action is deemed necessary, and no further investigation in this matter will be conducted by the San Francisco Office.

A source advised that Frank Lollar Britton was the publisher of "The American Nationalist", Post Office Box 301, Inglewood, California, in the 1950's, this being an anti-semitic and anti-Negro publication. In 1952, he formed The New Confederates, and the meeting of September 25, 1952, was concerned with the speaker making derogatory remarks about the Negroes and Jews.

The "California Jewish Voice" newspaper, a weekly newspaper published in Los Angeles, California, printed an article on page five of its issue dated May 29, 1953, entitled "A Hate Pamphleteer Dedicates His Commodity to Rival Dispensers", which identified Britton as then "not quite 33 years old, a veteran of World War II and a former student at the University of Southern California" and stated in part: "Britton's career as a professional anti-Semite began in 1950 while he was still a student at the University of Southern California. There he distributed anti-Semitic leaflets which won high praise from Wesley Swift, of Ku Klux Klan fame, who for a while made Britton his protege...An ambitious, striving man, Britton decided to form his own 'patriotic' movement in September, 1952 by sending out invitations for a meeting of his 'great new organization' aimed at combatting the 'Jew-Marxist' program of world conquest....The meeting was a dud....Very little money was collected and the organization - called The New Confederates - died in its infancy. Britton has other irons in the fire. One of them is his 'fortnightly' publication, The American Nationalist, started in December, 1952. Its content is similar to that of many other anti-Semitic publications. But Britton's printed material has one distinction...His products are technically better, more polished than most. He makes judicious use of color, of two-page layouts, for maximum reader appeal."

FRANK LOLLAR BRITTON
RACIAL MATTERS

The "American Nationalist" (AN) consistently identifies itself as a four-page publication of The American Nationalist, Post Office Box 301, Inglewood, California, edited by Frank Lollar Britton.

The Special Agents of the FBI mentioned in the attached LHM are SAS FRANCIS G. KAHL and [redacted]

For information of the Bureau and receiving offices, it appears that the American Nationalist (AN) and American Freedom Party (AFP) are attempting to proselytize current or former members of the National Socialist White Peoples Party (NSWPP). Since receiving offices all have some type of NSWPP activity, past or present, it can be assumed that AN or AFP personnel will make contacts with individuals involved in NSWPP activity.

On 6/4/74, Sergeant [redacted] Montclair, California Police Department, advised that the individuals mentioned in the attached LHM formerly resided at [redacted]

b6
b7C

[redacted] Within the past two months there had been several police reports of disturbances at this location involving residents of this address and individuals connected with the NSWPP at El Monte, California, apparently as a result of the proselytizing efforts of the AN.

It appears that the AN and the American Security Association mentioned in the attached LHM have barely progressed past the planning stages since the material located at Ontario, California, fails to indicate any type of large scale operation.

LEADS

Receiving offices are requested to review material in the attached LHM, evaluate it with information which may already be in your possession and conduct appropriate investigation where indicated.

AMERICAN NATIONALIST

I. JURISDICTIONAL BASIS FOR INVESTIGATION

This investigation is based on information which indicates the American Nationalist (AN) is engaged in activities which could involve a violation of Title 18, United States Code, Section 245 (b) (3), Chapter 102, 2101-2102 and Chapter 12, 231-233 (Antiriot Laws) or 241 (Civil Rights Act of 1968).

American Nationalist (AN) uses P.O. Box 817, Claremont, California, as a mailing address. AN supports separation of races and belief in Christianity. It claims to "trust in our constitutional republic and absolute dedication to our nation and people". AN is opposed to "governmental control of any other American group or publication and foreign wars having no basis of interest for the American people." AN is against "people known as anti-Christ and all forms of busing or other forms of governmental integration." AN is opposed to Communism, drugs, unjust taxation, bank interest rates, and government corruption. AN is attempting to organize along paramilitary lines. Members are known to possess weapons and incendiary devices. Member duties include participation in street demonstrations. Activities have been centered in the greater Los Angeles area. AN was formed in the latter part of 1973.

AMERICAN NATIONALIST

II. ARREST OF [REDACTED] AND [REDACTED]

b6
b7C

On May 24, 1974, Detective [REDACTED] Ontario, California Police Department (OCPD), advised that [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] were arrested by the OCPD on that date.

On May 24, 1974, [REDACTED] commented to Special Agents of the FBI that he and [REDACTED] had quit the National Socialist White Peoples Party (NSWPP) about one year ago.

b6
b7C

The NSWPP, Western Division, maintains its headquarters at 4375 North Peck Road, El Monte, California, and is under the leadership of [REDACTED]. Persons in the Western Division have participated in demonstrations against peace groups and have participated in distributing hate-type literature of an anti-Semitic or anti-Negro character.

b6
b7C

[REDACTED] advised that the OCPD responded to a complaint that one of the occupants of [REDACTED] attempted to shoot a neighbor lady as a result of a dispute which developed over a dog. [REDACTED] allegedly pointed a revolver at the complainant. However, it misfired. When OCPD Officers arrested [REDACTED] inside of [REDACTED] two molotov cocktails were observed as well as a large quantity of ammunition and some guns. [REDACTED] was also arrested. Both [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] were charged with violation of Section 452 of the California Penal Code (CPC) (Possession of Firebombs) and [REDACTED] was also charged with violation of Section 245 of the CPC (Assault with a Deadly Weapon).

b6
b7C

[REDACTED] further advised that two flags with swastikas were hanging on the walls and a large amount of literature was observed.

b6
b7C

A National Crime Information Center (NCIC) inquiry was initiated and [REDACTED] was listed as a deserter by the [REDACTED] as of March 8, 1974.

AMERICAN NATIONALIST

III. AMERICAN NATIONALIST - STANDARD OPERATION PROCEDURE MANUAL

Among the literature located at [REDACTED] was the following manual of the American Nationalist, entitled, "Standard Operation Procedure Manual", which is set forth on the following ten pages:

b6
b7c

STANDARD OPERATION PROCEDURE MANUAL

Not all circumstances one may come accross could possibly be listed in any SOP. However, this manual is intended as a basic guide and not necessarily to be followed one word for another. Our intent is rather to give a general view of desired operating instructions and will of necessity rely heavily upon the individual Troop Leaders and the District Divisional Commanders sense of Duty, Common Sense, and instructions to cover any particular situation until a true SOP manual can be developed.

Where practical the basic instructions as written will be implemented unless otherwise authorized by the DDC.

Each District will establish a Headquarters in the city as directed by American Nationalist Policy. The specific location of the building will be decided upon jointly by the assigned Troop Leader and the District Divisional Commander; or, American Freedom Party Council on Political Affairs.

The Building necessary for proper operational conditions must provide for the following:

- (a) Sufficient store space in the front to accommodate all material of the various Divisions of the American Freedom Party, publications of most "Right-Wing" political groups, as well as an assortment of Communist and Jew materials.
- (b) Space to provide meeting room for a minimum of fifty persons in comfort. This space must also be usable for Friday night entertainment for youth, such as dancing, movies, and youth gatherings.
- (c) Sanitation facilities as required by the appropriate city ordinance.
- (d) Office space for use by Troop Leaders is preferred but not necessary.
- (e) Attached apartment for use of Troop Leader or other member of Headquarters Staff to provide twenty-four hour security.

MEETING HALL USAGE

Use of the meeting hall for other than Troop use, shall be made available to other than American Nationalist personnel by appointment.

The American Nationalist reserves the following days for its private use:

- (a) Thursday (regular Troop meetings)
- (b) Friday (entertainment night for local youth)
- (c) Sunday (not available except for services by Church).

Any group who desires to use the meeting hall at any other time may do so at no cost, unless special requirements for a meeting necessitate financial responsibility, at which time the group responsible for the gathering shall bear all financial obligations.

Saturday nights are reserved for use by Divisions of the American Freedom Party for Public Meetings. The Troop responsible for the Meeting Hall will provide security Troops for all activities held in the structure.

At no time is the American Nationalist to request financial assistance from persons attending meetings at the Hall, nor during any gathering of any group, whether the meeting is American Nationalist or not.

No member of the American Nationalist will recruit among the party meeting at the hall. They are to provide security forces ONLY and are not to mingle with the people, distribute ANY material or take any action whatsoever unless it is in the line of duty to expel trouble-makers or persons who become disruptive.

TROOP HEADQUARTERS

The Headquarters assigned to various Districts shall maintain overall authority within that district. The Troop Leader assigned to the Troop Headquarters shall have overall authority within that district and be responsible only and directly to the District Division Commander.

All SubUnits formed by the Troop Leader shall remain under his direct control, and remains his personal responsibility throughout the duration of his stay in office.

Troop Headquarters Duties:

- a. Provide training facilities for the people assigned.
- b. Provide a means of gainful income
- c. Provide true Christian information
- d. Recruit new people
- e. Provide facilities for meeting with other A.N.
- f. Provide protection for other Divisions within the AFP
- g. Street Demonstrations
- h. Insure distribution of AFP and AN materials

Troop Responsibilities:

- a. Securing the District assigned politically
- b. Assisting all Whites within that district as best you can
- c. Fulfilling all delegated responsibilities from HQ and DDC assigned.

TROOP LEADER

DUTIES:

1. Train personnel to fill required positions within the Troop.
2. Recruiting of new people for American Nationalist necessities as well as provide new recruits for the American Freedom Party and all divisions therein.
3. Insure high morale in the assigned Troop and all SubUnits within the District.
4. Proper operation of all facilities assigned within that district.
5. Fulfilling all other assignments and duties as directed by the District Divisional Commander.

Responsibilities:

1. Maintenance of all Troop Houses assigned
2. Maintenance of all troop vehicles assigned
3. Street Demonstrations
4. Newspapers and Newsletter Materials
5. Troop funds
6. All delegated responsibilities as set down by the American Nationalist Headquarters and District Divisional Commander.

Authority:

Troop leaders have full authority to implement those instructions as set down from the District Divisional Commander's Office. Troop Leaders are accountable only to the DDC to whom they report directly.

Staff:

Troop Leaders compile and direct the activities of their own staff, selecting those persons they prefer to fill each Staff position. Each Troop or Unit staff consists of three positions:

1. Troop Commander
2. Information Officer
3. Public Relations

Each Staff member is equal to his Staff associate, irregardless of badge rank. Troop Leader may Promote, Demote, approve of or disapprove of any transfer of his Troop/SubUnit personnel, and do all other things in a manner reserved for Troop Commanders. Upon written notice of request a Troop Leader may suggest the dismissal of persons from the AN to DDC. The DDC reserves the right to approve the dismissal of Personnel from the A.N. and may at anytime give notice of transfers of individuals within the Division.

Recruiting:

The primary duties of Troop Leaders, and indeed all persons within the American Nationalist is recruiting. No person, other than an ANTI-CHRIST, maybe turned away from the recruiting centers of the American Nationalist, irregardless of color, creed, or National origin. Only Whites, however, may belong to the A.N. Blacks will be directed to the "Black Nationalist;" Mexican-Americans, "Mexican Nationalist" etc. All those persons who cannot function within the A.N. shall be directed to one or the other of the A.F.P. Divisions. The Troop Information Officer will be responsible for this decision.

INFORMATION OFFICER

Each Troop shall have one Information Officer who shall choose a selection of qualified people as assistants, forming the Information section of the District Troop Headquarters.

Duty:

To maintain a continuing flow of information to and from other Troops, preparing newspaper and newsletter material, properly informing the Troop Leader of unfolding events within his district, dispatching new recruits to various Divisions within the American Freedom Party.

Responsibilities:

1. Controlling the flow of information to and from all Troops and A.F.P.
2. Maintaining publication stocks in bookstore.
3. Maintaining literature stocks for distribution.
4. Maintaining knowledge of events within district for demonstration purposes, keeping Troop Leader informed of current happenings.
5. Securing materials for newspapers and newsletters insuring timely arrival for running of presses.

6. Works closely with Public Relations
7. Issuance of Daily Report
8. Controls Meeting Hall usage, scheduling of Troop events.

PUBLIC RELATIONS

Public Relations is responsible for the proper image of the American Nationalist and the American Freedom Party.

Further, Public Relations must maintain a line of communications between the other seven Divisions of the American Freedom Party and their local Troop via Public Relations Divisional Office. Daily contact with the Division is an absolute necessity.

Public Relations works very closely with the Troop Information Officer to insure co-operation between departments and exchange of pertinent information.

Public Relations assumes responsibility for all Troop press releases and assists the Information Officer in selection of priority events.

Responsibility for proper demonstration press coverages belongs to Public Relations as is the make-up of picket signs, literature for distribution, proper public attitude of the troops and all other manner of things generally related to, and not a part of, the Information Office.

Public Relations is a part of the Troop Leader's Staff and has equal authority to the other members, irregardless of badge rank.

HOUSE LEADERS

Each Troop will maintain Troop houses. The Troop will not maintain billeting facilities within the Headquarters building. House leaders will be on Troup Leader staff, but under control of the Divisional House CMDR.

House Leader responsibilities:

1. Selection of his staff:
 - (a) Cook
 - (b) Steward
2. For the direct Supervision of the Troop House and responsible for the conduct of persons residing therein.
3. Collection of rents ($25.00 per week), purchasing of food and other supplies relating to the house.
4. Collecting 10% of persons income for the Church and insuring its delivery to the Reverend.
5. Provides for the welfare of persons in residence.
6. Directs daily routine
7. Prepares daily report
8. Oversees daily activities
9. Responsible for the conduct of persons in residence

IV. PRESENTATION OF ~~K~~AMERICAN NATIONALIST GOALS AND STATEMENT OF BELIEFS

cal's

Among the literature located at [redacted]
[redacted] were leaflets outlining the Presentation of American Nationalist Goals and a statement of American Nationalist beliefs which are set forth on the following two pages.

b6
b7c

PO. 817
Claremont, California
91711

PRESENTATION of AMERICAN NATIONALIST GOALS:

I

WE must return to the original form of our CONSTITUTIONAL REPUBLIC, forsaking the present alien form of government known as a DEMOCRACY. This will necessitate in voiding all but the most essential Ammendments.

II

We must build a new Social Idea based on Individual RACIAL VALUES. With each race responsible for the conduct of their own people.

III

We must have Honest responsible Leaders, who will willingly represent the PEOPLE of their respective race, and the interest of the PEOPLE and not their own.

IV

We must turn our peoples away from materialism and inspire them with individual Racial pride and faith in our Constitution, (unrevised).

V

We must encourage genuine cultural endeavor and ruthlessly stamp out the degeneracy that passes for art & music today.

VI

We must do everything in our power to protect nature's gifts to America, which must include all forms of pollution control.

VII

We must, at all cost, stop drug abuse in our Nation. There is no punishment too severe for those who buy, sell or furnish drugs that destroy our youth and eventually our Nation.

VIII

The American Nationalist believes in LIMITED Socialism, that being, a. Free medical for the citizen., b. Government sponsored transportation., c. Insured housing for the elderly with every basic necessity fulfilled., 3. Voidance of the major tax burden placed on the American people unnecessarily.

IX

We must make it our most sacred task to ensure the betterment of our people.

WE ARE FOR:

1. A UNITED PEOPLE THROUGH THE SEPARATION OF RACES
2. BELIEF IN GOD AND JESUS CHRIST THROUGH CHRISTIANITY
3. TRUST IN OUR CONSTITUTIONAL REPUBLIC
4. ABSOLUTE DEDICATION TO OUR NATION AND ITS PEOPLE

WE ARE AGAINST:

1. RACEMIXING
2. GOVERNMENTAL CONTROL OF ANY OTHER AMERICAN GROUP OR PUBLICATION.
3. THE PEOPLE KNOWN AS ANTI-CHRIST
4. ANY AND ALL FORMS OF BUSING OR OTHER FORMS OF GOVERNMENTAL INTEGRATION
5. FOREIGN WARS HAVING NO BASIS OF INTEREST FOR THE AMERICAN PEOPLE
6. COMMUNISM

AMERICAN NATIONALIST

Also located at [redacted] was a card index box containing index cards with vehicle license numbers and notations after the license numbers such as "race mixers" and "Possible Jewish Defense League (JDL) spy".

b6
b7c

The JDL, founded in 1968, is composed primarily of young Jewish militants who consider themselves as defenders of "Jewish Rights". Demonstrations attempting to dramatize the Jewish problem in Russia, and similar demonstrations against Arab Establishments have often resulted in violence. [redacted]

b6
b7c

[redacted] has stated publicly on many occasions that violence is sometimes necessary to accomplish the aims of the JDL.

Also located in the previously mentioned card index box were index cards bearing the names and addresses of various private companies providing security services and selling various types of security equipment. The card index box was labeled, "Security Control and Equipment Systems".

The card index box appears related to the information set out in Section VII concerning the Supply and Intelligence Duties listed for the American Security Association.
